Authorizing Fictions Marie Murphy, 1992 A critique of the Chilean novelist's A House in the country studying particularly its representation of the many faceted concept of authority Casa de campo combines the techniques of traditional novels with the 20th century intermingling of reality and fiction The novel's central theme of authority as figured in the discourse its play between reality and illusion and its dialogue with literature and society as a whole form the subject of this study Murphy explores the illusory authority of the narrator in controlling characters voices and establishes a parallel with the characters contradictory power over each other the plots of the narrator recall and parody the authoritarian regime which is reflected in the novel The narrator's authority is further defined in a reading of the novel in which author narrator reader and character become linguistic constructs in a textual play and meanings emerge at variance with the authorized commentary MARIE MURPHY is an Assistant Professor of Spanish at Loyola College in Maryland

Feeling Strangely in Mid-Century Spanish and Latin American Women's Fiction Tess C. Rankin, 2023-12-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM The early twentieth century was awash in revolutionary scientific discourse and its uptake in the public imaginary through popular scientific writings touched every area of human experience from politics and governance to social mores and culture Feeling Strangely argues that these shifting scientific understandings and their integration into Hispanic and Lusophone society reshaped the experience of gender The book analyzes gender as a felt experience and explores how that experience is shaped by popular scientific discourse by examining the strange femininity of young protagonists in four novels written by women in Spanish and Portuguese Rosa Chacel's Memorias de Leticia Valle published in Argentina in 1945 Norah Lange's Personas en la sala Argentina 1950 Carmen Laforet's Nada Spain 1945 and Clarice Lispector's Perto do cora o selvagem Brazil 1943 It pairs each novel with a broad scientific theme selected from those that captured the contemporary popular imagination to argue that the young female protagonists in these novels all put forth visions of young womanhood as an experience of strangeness Building on Carmen Mart n Gait e's term chicas raras Rankin proposes this strangeness as constitutive of a gendered experience inextricable from affective and material engagements with the world
