

Forrest Gump (Matthew) was all his blood.

4 Describe Calpurnia's relationship to Mrs. Gump?

She is the housekeeper, but treats Scout like her daughter and is strict with her, but loves her and teaches her how to act like a lady.

5 How does Calpurnia try to teach Scout about seeing around people like Walter? Have you ever been in a similar situation?

There should be gestures to guests and not make them feel uncomfortable.

6 In this chapter, Atticus tells Scout "If you can learn a simple trick, Scout, you'll get along a lot better with all kinds of folks. You never really understand a person until you consider things from their point of view" (p.177). How possible is it to really understand things from another person's point of view?

7 Describe Atticus and Scout's "compromise". What does this "compromise" show us about Atticus?

Scout wanted to stop attending school, but compromised and said that she would go if Atticus continued to read to her.

Atticus did not really compromise because he wanted to keep reading to Scout.

8 How does Atticus differentiate between Cunninghams and the Ewells? What has the higher status and why?

The Cunninghams are honorable although poor.

The Ewells are trash and not respectable at all.

Ch. 4

1 Describe the house found on the way home from school.

Two pieces of grass, weeded in front, two shiny (Indian) beady pictures.

2 What information did Will tell about his father?

That he had a black beard and was the president of the L.O.O.P. railroad (which means he is super rich).

3 According to Scout, Calpurnia called the Hot Cross Buns superstition that Tom and Will described "silly-old-witch". What does Calpurnia mean? Is Calpurnia showing children when she makes this comment?

4 Why do you think the children make up a story about Boo?

5 Why do you think someone was laughing inside the house?

Ch. 5

1 Describe Miss Maudie Atkinson. How typical is she of Maycomb's women? What do the children think of her?

She is kind to the children and takes time to answer their questions. She seems like a proper Southern Lady. She also likes growing flowers and does not like gossiping.

2 How does Miss Maudie's story of Boo differ from their own beliefs of him?

He is a regular young man and slightly different, but wanted to live like the way he wants. He is not a monster or someone to be scared of.
