

Graduation Messages for Sister

1. When you were little, all you ever talked about was how you wanted to be a nurse when you grew up. I didn't think you were serious about it, but it turns out I was wrong. You've always been an amazing person, and I am so proud of you. Congratulations on your graduation, sis!

2. Do you remember when we were little and I used to always beat you at games? You would get so mad and frustrated that you would start crying. As silly as it may seem now, I think those moments were the beginning of your journey to where you are today. Because of those experiences, you became determined to improve yourself. I'm so proud of you. Congratulations on your graduation!

3. My little baby sister is all grown up! I remember when Mom would carry you around and give you snacks while she did the housework. Now you're getting all A's in your classes while working a part-time job on top of that. I know Mom and Dad are very proud of you as well. Congratulation on your graduation!

4. Sis, I just want to tell you how proud I am of everything you have accomplished. I remember when we first started school and you were placed in the 'gifted' program. I remember how much that meant to you and I could see how hard you were trying because of it. Now look at you! You're graduating from college with honors. You are truly an inspiration.

5. Happy graduation, sister! I hope you know just how proud I am of you. You have overcome so many obstacles and achieved more than I could ever hope to achieve. Your graduation is symbol of all your hard work and determination. I love you! Congratulations!

To Sister Graduation Speech:

Ask the Grey Sisters Elizabeth Iles, 1998-06 Ask the Grey Sisters Sault Ste Marie and the General Hospital 1898 1998 tells the story of the creation and one hundred year history of the Sault Ste Marie General Hospital At a time when Canada's healthcare system is at a crossroads and we are asked to make crucial decisions for its future it is intriguing and enlightening to look at the colourful past of a typical community hospital Throughout the 1890s Sault Ste Marie was a town in search of a hospital Its glory days at the centre of the fur trade route were long gone and the Sault was in the process of becoming a modern industrial community Such a community needed a hospital as a centrepiece to attract investors and as a necessary social institution to care for the hundreds of workers who were flocking to town without family support The General Hospital was established in 1898 after the town committee charged with developing a hospital had been refused funding by both the federal and provincial governments In desperation the committee met with the provincial Inspector of Asylums and Prisons the only provincial official with hospitals in his mandate If you wish a hospital of which the work is serious and lasting he is reported to have advised them ask the Grey Sisters And so began a fruitful association between the community of Sault Ste Marie and two orders of Grey Sisters who have operated the hospital through its one hundred year history Based in part on the extensive archival collections of both orders of nuns this history includes material from the sisters Chronicles and their personal reminiscences The result is an intimate and detailed portrait of a community hospital placed in the context of an emerging provincial system of health care

Don't Pull Your Sister's Hair Sam Flood Jr., 2025-04-01 Don't Pull Your Sister's Hair is the story of Sam Flood Jr the boy who didn't speak until he was five has become a man who wants to tell stories for a living Sam Flood was born on January 1 1984 two weeks late Walking and running at ten months he didn't speak until age five From the outset Sam seemed to have his own idea for how life should be writes his father in the opening chapter in which Sam pieces together his memories with stories told by his family to describe what it was like for Sam to express himself from pulling his sister Eliza's hair to wandering to Hagen Dazs at age three Sam's inability to speak concerned his parents who consulted doctors to figure out what was wrong One specialist said Sam would never graduate from high school let alone go to college Turning to writing reading and his own sense of humor to cope with constant bullying for his differences Sam proved them wrong earning a BA from Mitchell College in Connecticut Any family can find hope in Sam's story Anyone who feels different misunderstood bullied or unfairly treated in life can find light in the way Sam charted his course This is a story of neurodiversity but it's not just for people dealing with ADHD autism or any other diagnostic label because everyone has unique ways of thinking processing and behaving Don't Pull Your Sister's Hair is about the moments where neurodiversity creates opportunity It's the story of what's possible

The Agony of Injustice Mike Braunsroth, 2022-11-14 The Agony of Injustice is a work of fiction set in the late 1930s to late 1950s The story is based on an immigrant family who came from Germany after the Second World War and settled in the Midwest which was best as he was a blacksmith The two children both in high school were well liked The boy had a very close girlfriend and the girl was well liked by all The local banker s son especially liked the girl but she always rejected his request for a date This infuriated him as he had no trouble dating any other girl he chose due to his father s wealth This brought about an enormous tragedy to the immigrant family that caused the agony of injustice Names characters places and incidents are either the products of the author s imagination or are used fictitiously Any resemblance similarity or identification to actual persons living or dead events products or locales is entirely coincidental and unintentional

21 Good Old Days Gabrielle May,2020-02-24 I was broken shattered and everything was taken away from me I had no choice but to give up Give up on everything Give up on myself Every time I tried to move on the strings in my life pull me back so strong that neither could I move an inch from where I was nor could I break those strings Why did they do this to me How could they do this to me I lost everything I LOST MYSELF Why am I living For what For whom I stood there in front of the bathroom mirror tapping my fingers on the basin thinking that my strings would pull me back any moment but something made me feel they weren t gonna pull me this time and for the last time I looked into the mirror INTO THE MIRROR to see myself but what I saw was all the terrible things that happened in my life every possible reason why I could end my life right now I closed my eyes and all I could remember was the 21 good old days in my miserable life

Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women Bayyinah S. Jeffries, 2014-04-04 A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women African American Muslim Women in the Movement for Black Self Determination 1950 1975 challenges traditional notions and interpretations of African American particularly women who joined the Original Nation of Islam during the Civil Rights Black Power era This book is the first major investigation of the subject that engages a wide scope of women from The Nation and utilizes a wealth of primary documents and personal interviews to reveal the importance of women in this community Jeffries reveals that women were respected in the movement and maintained a very clear and often sought after voice in the advancement of the Original Nation of Islam A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women replaces the typical portrait of the subservient and irrelevant African American Muslim woman with a far more accurate picture of their integral leadership and substantial contributions to the rise of Islam and black consciousness in the self determination movement in the United States and beyond during the Civil Rights Black Power era Carry On, Warrior Glennon Doyle, 2014-04-08 A New York Times essayist shares her journey from a self destructive college student to a devoted family woman and teacher while illuminating the importance of trusting in a higher power and being truthful about life s challenges Sound of Our Summer Seas Diane Menghetti, 2004 There is some evidence that Japanese people may have visited Australia before the Europeans settled here The Japanese government legalised emigration in 1866 and twenty four passports to Australia were issued between 1868 and 1882 The first Japanese settler to arrive in Queensland in the 1870s was a circus acrobat By the end of the century nearly 4000 Japanese lived in Australia and 88% of them in Queensland Few people realise that Townsville in North Queensland hosted the first Japanese Consuls based in Australia They served their countrymen who were working in the pearling trochus shell and sugar industries The previously little known and fascinating story of Townsville s Japanese Consuls which is superbly illustrated by Townsville based artist Tate Adams will surprise and delight Urban High School Students and the Challenge of Access William G. Tierney, Julia E. Colyar, 2009 Urban High School Students and the Challenge of Access documents a year in the life of five adolescents preparing for college The text examines the different pathways that brought these students to where they are living in poverty attending overcrowded schools and the pressure to be the first in their families to attend college are just a few of the challenges these students must battle en route to college and that impact their chances of success once there Their stories provide insight for practitioners and policy makers working to improve college access at urban high schools How Was School Today? Paul Higgins, 2004 How Was School Today explores the richly complex school experiences of Katie a fifth grader in a very small school that educates children of varying ages and academic capabilities together Katie s experiences provide an opportunity to wonder about the school experiences of any child How Was School Today goes inside a world about which parents typically know very little and about which teachers may wish to learn more I Had a Right to Remain Silent Sylvia Cooper, 2022-01-03 Sylvia takes us on a journey from her life s childhood to being an adult Her private battles in and out of the public s eye and her struggles were full of highs and lows

One night she suffered another beating that led to two black eyes and a knot the size of an egg on her forehead. She was extremely exhausted from all the tossing, banging, and hard blows to her body. She could barely get out of the bed, and she was a scheduled panelist for the CT Commission on Women discussing HR Bill 5207, Ban the Box. There were great panelists on the program, including a CT State Representative sitting right next to her. How would she explain all the bruises to her face? She applied as much make-up as she could, but there were no hiding these scars. This problem was closing in on her, and she felt as if she was losing not just the battle but the war. Who was this abuser? Her silence had now turned its back on her.
