unique treatment of the sculpted and painted form She focuses on the coexistence of sacred and sensuous images within the common boundaries of Buddhist Jain and Hindu sacred spaces redefining terms like sacred and secular in relation to Indian architecture She also considers the paradox of passionate poetry in which saints praised the sheer bodily beauty of the divine form and nonsacred Rajput painted manuscripts which freely inserted gods into the earthly realm of the courts By juxtaposing visual and literary sources Dehejia demonstrates the harmony between the sacred and the profane in classical Indian culture Her synthesis of art literature and cultural materials not only generates an all inclusive picture of the period but also revolutionizes our understanding of the cultural ethos of premodern India The Bihar & Orissa Gazette ,1916
