Modern Biblical Criticism as a Tool of Statecraft (1700-1900) Scott Hahn,Jeffrey L. Morrow,2020-04-27 Modern biblical scholarship is often presented as analogous to the hard and natural sciences its histories present the developmental stages as quasi scientific discoveries That image of Bible scholars as neutral scientists in pursuit of truth has persisted for too long Modern Biblical Criticism as a Tool of Statecraft 1700 1900 by Scott W Hahn and Jeffrey L Morrow examines the lesser known history of the development of modern biblical scholarship in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries This volume seeks partially to fulfill Pope Benedict XVI s request for a thorough critique of modern biblical criticism by exploring the eighteenth and nineteenth century roots of modern biblical scholarship situating those scholarly developments in their historical philosophical theological and political contexts Picking up where Scott W Hahn and Benjamin Wiker s Politicizing the Bible The Roots of Historical Criticism and the Secularization of Scripture 1300 1700 left off Hahn and Morrow show how biblical scholarship continued along a secularizing trajectory as it found a home in the newly developing Enlightenment universities where it received government funding Modern Biblical Criticism as a Tool of Statecraft 1700 1900 makes clear why the discipline of modern biblical studies is often so hostile to religious and faith commitments today

Praying in God's Will Morgan Kizer,2023-05-02 This is a Scriptural based book on prayer It cites over 200 references in both the New and Old Testaments The Bible has much to say about prayer It is a very important topic This book answers many questions that believers have about prayer Why their prayers are not answered Which prayers are always answered It explains how to pray Where to pray How often one should pray When to decline praying and numerous Scriptural details that can help an individual's prayer life. Prayer is a significant part of a believer's relationship with the Father. It also discusses the things that have produced ineffective prayers. The key problem with most people's prayers is unforgiven sins. The solution is both simple and complex: sincerely praying forgiveness prayers. The author identifies three basic prayers that when prayed correctly and sincerely are always answered in the affirmative. God expects us to be honest with Him. The key is Jesus' prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane (Matthew 26:39-44). When Jesus was facing a terrible death on the cross, He asked if possible that the Father would spare Him. Nevertheless, He gave believers the example that they should always ask that the Father override our wants in favor of His will being done. Prayer is not reciting a series of magic words that cause things to happen. God is sovereign; He can do anything that He chooses to do. The Holy Bible mentions some of the answers that He has already pre-determined. He is consistent and does everything in agreement with His written Word. God is perfect. If He were to change, He would be other than perfect.
