The Shattered Dream Iftikhar Ahmed, 2024-10-22 About my book The book entitled The Shattered Dream A bouquet of short stories is my maiden creation in which I endeavoured to present such stories which mainly highlight the dark elements and sinister as well as malicious intent of some hidden enemies who besiege us from all around thereby ruining our peace and serenity of minds The common man sometimes feel utterly miserable and lonesome in dealing with such malignant forces Life is not always a bed of roses for everybody rather it is replete with unconquerable and insurmountable diabolical elements casting their magical spell on all of us thereby making us enchained in their fetters without presenting any exit passage whatsoever therefrom All the stories of this book not only raise thought provoking questions in the minds of the readers but they also make them experience the pangs and sufferings of this mundane yet mysterious world along with the protagonists of each story The purpose of this book is to explore the bitter truth of human life which is mostly poignant and filled with profound sorrow and grief

The Oxford Companion to Pakistani History Ayesha Jalal, 2012

Insofar as history is constantly in the process of being reconfigured in the light of new processes and challenges any Companion to the history of Pakistan cannot but be an ongoing if not obviously an open ended enterprise The historiography of Pakistan has been missing such a comprehensive survey of not only sixty five years of the country's existence but also of the movement preceding its creation Pakistan possesses a rich and varied history considering that it was carved out of the Indian subcontinent one of the world's oldest civilizations hence the prevailing geographical religious ethnic linguistic and cultural diversities and complexities The Oxford Companion to Pakistani History has attempted to provide the reader with information on as colourful a spectrum of subjects as possible This is the first time that all facets of Pakistani history have been covered in one encyclopaedic volume A wide range of topics have been discussed from the pre Partition colonial period to post Partition movements religious political cultural etc peoples and places culture architecture politics military economics linguistics archaeology judiciary art theatre education foreign relations government media philanthropy civil society and several others The Companion differs from other encyclopaedias in the sense that all entries have been written in an analytical unbiased style by well known experts in the related field of the topic paying the keenest attention to factual details A system of cross referencing is available through insertion of asterisks within the text linking the entry to another headword that may appear while reading a particular entry Maps of Pakistan and the Indian subcontinent along with a Subject Index are provided at the end of the volume All these steps have been taken to render the Companion as user friendly as possible
