- 1 The first step is to select the right insurance carrier. Consider a number of factors, such as the company's financial strength, its reputation, its claims-paying record, and its customer service. (Remember to do the same research for the health insurance carrier.)
- 2 Check your company's relationship with the carrier. Is it a good one? Has the carrier been reliable in the past? Has it been able to pay claims quickly and fairly? Has it been able to handle disputes with the carrier?
- 3 Check the carrier's claims-paying record. This is a critical factor in selecting a carrier. A carrier with a strong claims-paying record is a good sign that the carrier is reliable and that it will be able to pay claims quickly and fairly.
- 4 Once you have selected a carrier, you should consider the carrier's claims-paying record. This is a critical factor in selecting a carrier. A carrier with a strong claims-paying record is a good sign that the carrier is reliable and that it will be able to pay claims quickly and fairly.
