Ferdous Hossain Bhuiyan,2002 SICT's Steps Towards Good Governance Through ICTs ,2006 Segments and Challenges Jahed Rahman,2024-10-30 The theme that premised the essence of the book is that in life s journey there are plethora of fragmentations mostly causing frustration and dismay but some of those create also opportunities for a new start wiping out initial distresses That typically depends on alertness and commitment of the incumbent to respond and silhouette the new opportunities The book is thus titled as Segments and Challenges It epitomizes the entire life of Javed the principal character of the story making progression in life in the midst of frequent fragmented turn of his journey but still making significant strides in life even though burdened by social and traditional impositions Diametrically opposite to Javed s sober and steady approach to life was his high school headmaster Mr Hamid Ullah a brilliant student of his time of the Bangladesh prime university who however lacked balance between emotions and reality In that journey process and at that phase of life he notwithstanding brilliance and capacity otherwise finally ended up by choice as a teacher of a community high school in a remote area He was successful in making that school a prominent one but that was nothing compared to his intellect and ability Contrarily a half educated but wise and pragmatic rural lady Tahera Khala made a major mark in shaping Javed s progression whereas a smart and outgoing very rich metropolitan housewife Lady Khadija lost everything due to a mismatch between pursuing social fame and standing with the concept open family and liberal attitude Javed s real exposure to affluence and high stake living was when being requested by one of his academic well wishers started tutoring the only daughter of Lady Khadija Here he fell victim to sudden indulgence of life without plan or premonition the probable outcome of which haunted him all through life Being unbound by the victim of the first but unintended incident he pursued his life s journey with the only daughter he had in a regular married life The intriguing climax of that saga culminating the end starts there Refugee Azmat Ashraf,2020-08-21 Following a bloody violent struggle in 1971 East Pakistan became the independent state of Bangladesh Caught in the midst of this conflict were the Biharis a Muslim minority group who originally fled the Indian state of Bihar when India was partitioned by the British in 1947 Author Azmat Ashraf himself a Bihari was one year old when his family escaped India in 1953 for the relative safety of East Pakistan Less than two decades later after building a solid life for themselves his family were targeted by communal violence during Bangladesh s turbulent birth in which most of Azmat s family members were killed On the road once again it wasn't until 2002 nearly fifty years after his first migration that Azmat finally completed his epic search for a home settling in Canada with his wife and three daughters This book is a memoir of one family's fight for survival and to rebuild their lives following a series of unimaginable tragedies It is a story of human resilience in the face of evil of real love and true friendship and an inspiration for refugees everywhere who are struggling to find a place of security and prosperity in this world Despite the personal tragedies that Azmat and his family have suffered he has taken great care to provide a balanced view of the conflict of 1971 to help Pakistanis and Bangladeshis in particular and people of the subcontinent in general understand this painful part of their mutual history The Bangladesh Development Studies ,1992
