The Sacrament of Reconciliation Robert L. Fastiggi, 2017-03-28 The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a comprehensive and accessible resource for undergraduate graduate and seminary courses on the Sacrament of Reconciliation It offers an overview of the sacrament in terms of its anthropological scriptural historical and theological roots as well as an analysis of the key components of the sacrament itself matter form minister recipient etc With the knowledge of a theologian and the skill of an historian Robert Fastiggi links the Sacrament of Penance to its anthropological foundations grounded in the recognition of human failure and the need for forgiveness This anthropological foundation includes a brief overview of how non biblical religions deal with sin and purification as well as the revelation of the human need for reconciliation presented in Sacred Scripture He carefully unwraps the Old Testament and New Testament narratives that cover original sin human rebellion the need for reconciliation conversion forgiveness and the remission of sin Dr Fastiggi understands the sacrament in the context of spirituality or ascetical and mystical theology His section on the Sacrament of Penance in Church history lays out comprehensive overview of the development in the sacrament of Penance from the Patristic period to the period immediately before Vatican II At the heart of the new evangelization is the proclamation of Christ who has come into the world to reconcile sinful human beings with the transcendent love of God For those living today in a post Christian world the powerful message of God s merciful love expressed through the sacrament of reconciliation is a most valuable way of knowing the joy of the Gospel

Unsettling Worship Sarah Travis,2023-08-31 Settler churches across North America have committed to the work of conciliation and reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples Worship is a space in which these commitments are expressed and nurtured As we are embraced by God s reconciling love in worship we are equipped to carry that reconciling love into our relationships beyond the worship space Worship equips us for the work of conciliation but the liturgy itself needs to be decolonized if it is to truly honor Christian commitments to God and neighbor This book explores the reformed liturgy in its pattern of Gathering Word Table and Sending searching it both for colonial vestiges and spaces of new possibility Unsettling Worship invites the reader into a conversation about reformed worship in a setting of ongoing colonization Worship should both unsettle us and equip us for the essential work of making things right with Indigenous neighbors Religious

Intimacies Mary Dunn,Brenna Moore,2020-11-03 Scholars of religion have come a long way since William James famously made of religion a matter between man and his maker For decades now they have been attentive to the ways in which religion takes shape as the product of broad social forces focusing on the dynamics of power and culture as heuristics for understanding religious phenomena and experience What however might they be missing by moving too quickly from one interpretative extreme to the other and what might we learn about religion by staying in the interstitial space between the individual in her solitude and society as a whole Religious Intimacies edited by Mary Dunn and Brenna Moore brings together nine scholars of modern Christianity to probe this in between space In essays that range from treatments of Jesuit indigenous relations in early modern Canada to the erotics of contemporary black theology each contributor makes the case for the study of the presence and power of affective ties and relational dynamics between friends lovers and intimate others even things as vital to the understanding of religion The Challenges of Vatican II for an Authentic Indian Catholic Church Suhas Pereira,2021 The Vatican II was an event of a new facelift for the entire edifice of the Catholic ecclesiology It called for the renewal in the universal Catholic Church This book deals with the question How can the Catholic Church in India accept the council s challenge for renewal and become truly Indian in its being and essence Undertaking a systematic examination of the post conciliar ecclesiological development in the Indian Catholic Church in its existential multi religious and multi cultural context the author attempts to develop an ecclesiological reflection for the Indian context A Living Sacrifice: Liturgy and Eschatology in Joseph Ratzinger Roland Millare,2022-06-13 A Living Sacrifice focuses on the inherent relationship between eschatology and the liturgy in light of Ratzinger s insistence upon the primacy of logos over ethos When logos is subordinated to ethos the human person becomes subjected to a materialist ontology that leads to an ethos that is concerned above all by utility and progress which affects one's approach to understanding the liturgy and eschatology. How a person celebrates the liturgy becomes subject to the individual whim of one person or a group of people. Eschatology is reduced to addressing the temporal needs of a society guided by a narrow conception of hope or political theology. If the human person wants to understand his authentic sacramental logos, then he must first turn to Christ, the incarnate Logos, who reveals to him that he is created for a loving relationship with God and others. The primacy of logos is the central hermeneutical key to understanding the unique vision of Ratzinger's Christocentric liturgical theology and eschatology. This is coupled with a study of Ratzinger's spiritual Christology with a focus on how it influences his theology of liturgy and eschatology through the notions of participation and communion in Christ's sacrificial love. Finally, A Living Sacrifice examines Ratzinger's theology of hope, charity, and beauty as well as his understanding of active participation in relationship to the eschatological and cosmic characteristics of the sacred liturgy.

The Destruction of Medieval Manuscripts in England Krista A. Milne, 2025-03-28. The Dissolution of the Monasteries 1536-40 is widely held as the single most significant event in England's history of the destruction and loss of medieval manuscripts. Despite this consensus, the ultimate impact of the Dissolution and of medieval manuscript destruction during the centuries that followed remains unclear. How did Reformation era losses compare to those which preceded the Reformation and to those that followed it? How did the losses caused by sectarian conflicts compare to more quotidian kinds of loss such as improper storage or deliberate de-acquisition? Which manuscripts were targeted when were they targeted and how should one account for the inevitably skewed record? In The Destruction of Medieval Manuscripts in England, Krista A. Milne asks these questions to better understand literary taste, behavioural patterns, and the circulation of knowledge throughout the medieval period. Milne explores methods drawn from quantitative codicology to explore the most significant moments of manuscript loss in the history of England. The evidence suggests that this destruction was much more limited in its targets but far more extensive in scope than is usually acknowledged. Overwhelmingly throughout the investigation, the manuscripts most at risk were those considered too new to qualify as antique but too old to be au courant. This pattern of destruction, which Milne describes as the principle of age without vintage, remains apparent in many different domains today.

Believing is Seeing Bruce McNab, 2016-08-22. What are you looking for? These are Jesus's first words in John's Gospel, and he asks us the same question when we decide to follow him. We read John's Gospel because it helps us get closer to Jesus. We're like the first disciples who answer his question with their own Master: where can we find you? Only near the end of John's story do we learn the answer: Jesus lives in the hearts of all who love him. Believing is Seeing guides readers to believe more deeply in Jesus of Nazareth as the human face of God, seen through the eyes of his beloved disciple. It beckons us to bring to his gospel our soul-searching questions: Do Jesus's words stake a claim on my life? Does John's gospel test me intellectually, spiritually, or morally? Does John's portrait of Jesus make me see him a new way, pray differently, even live differently? Believing in Jesus, the Son of God, shapes how we perceive our own identity the world around us the nature of truth and our relationship with God To believe is to see with love's eyes

Department of Bibliography, 1978 @ Worship Teresa Berger, 2017-07-14 A host of both very old and entirely new liturgical practices have arisen in digital mediation from the live streaming of worship services and pray as you go apps to digital prayer chapels virtual choirs and online pilgrimages Cyberspace now even hosts communities of faith that exist entirely online These digitally mediated liturgical practices raise challenging questions Are worshippers in an online chapel really a community at prayer Do avatars that receive digital bread and wine receive communion Worship proposes a nuanced response to these sometimes contentious issues rooted in familiarity with and sustained attention to actual online practices Four major thematic lines of inquiry form the structure of the book After an introductory chapter the following chapters look at digital presence virtual bodies and online participation ecclesial communities in cyberspace digital materiality visuality and soundscapes and finally the issues of sacramental mediation online A concluding chapter brings together the insights from the previous chapters and maps a way forward for reflections on digitally mediated liturgical practices Worship is the first monograph dedicated to exploring online liturgical practices that have emerged since the introduction of Web 2.0 Bringing together the scholarly tools and insights of liturgical studies constructive theology and digital media theories it is vital reading for scholars of Theology and Religion with as well as Sociology and Digital Culture more generally Fully Conscious, Fully Active Bryan Cones and Stephen Burns, 2020-01-27 This collection of essays explores the work of Gabe Huck and its effect on liturgical thought and renewal A Church on the Move Joe Paprocki, 2016-01-28 2017 Catholic Press Association Book Awards Second Place Pastoral Ministry IF FORMER CATHOLICS WERE CONSIDERED A DENOMINATION IT WOULD BE THE SECOND LARGEST DENOMINATION IN THE U S from A Church on the Move Many statistics on the Catholic Church today are sobering and the future of the Church can seem bleak indeed The average parish often feels helpless to do anything that might help turn the tide and revitalize the Church But best selling author Joe Paprocki insists that there is good news with the right plans in place the Catholic Church and the local parish specifically will not only survive but thrive A Church on the Move offers 52 practical strategies for moving parishes forward principally by focusing on the one thing the Church can offer that the world at large cannot Jesus Christ Each chapter begins with a quote from Pope Francis and each helpful strategy falls within one of five key categories how a Church on the move thinks functions worships forms disciples and engages the world Every chapter takes an honest look at a particular problem in the Church before moving to a creative redemptive and achievable solution A Church on the Move brings to the parish level the great themes of Pope Francis papacy mission mercy and evangelization and replaces despair with a profound hope for the future of the Catholic Church When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G.
