Inclusive Growth 2 Ed Pratheek Praveen Kumar, Making Change Tina P. Kruse,2019 Making Change demonstrates the potential for youth to engage in social entrepreneurship to transform themselves and their communities Effective for all young people this approach is most impactful for youth in marginalized communities where the opportunity gap suppressed social mobility and economic disparity are most profound In such settings engaging youth as leaders of social change offers the exponential benefits of personal empowerment community enhancement and economic transformation Grounded both in interdisciplinary theory and an expansive set of practical case examples this book uses an asset focus and cultural relevance that centralizes youth and communities in social entrepreneurship while introducing vocabulary and frameworks for youth social entrepreneurship advocates to gain resources and political traction for the approach Social entrepreneurship is outlined as a social justice mechanism that allows disempowered adolescents to change their own communities with a positive compounding effect on their own lives and futures Consequently readers will have the opportunity consider the complex interplay of individual economic and community development versus oversimplifying causes or solutions of social disparities Individuals engaged in youth work program design funding and the study of youth and community development will appreciate the text s exploration of existing research and theory that cross scholarly disciplines to promote a robust view of youth development

Teacher Education in India A. C. Deve Gowda,1973 Points of Departure Sudarsanam Padam,2021-07-19 In this grass roots memoir renowned public policy expert and public transport professional Sudarsanam Padam sketches his life from a small village on the banks of Godavari to an exciting life beyond He studied while working to graduate from the Nizam College Hyderabad His first job was at the age of sixteen in the Census of the Taluk Office 1960 From seventeen onwards he worked in the Bar Council Telephone Department and Small Industry Training Institute With constant encouragement from his lawyer father he graduated in 1969 He almost made it to the central civil services He had a very rewarding career as a manager in the Andhra Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation APSRTC He describes his life as a young manager in APSRTC controlling one thousand workers and operating more than a hundred buses the only means of travel in a big district He saw blood on the road and the death of hapless poor in accidents combined with an essential public service The broadening of human understanding and matching it with moving people across often impassable roads was an education no college could give In all Dr Padam s Points of Departure are live examples of what young professionals can do in their own quest for excellence and for sustained institution building for generations of students and professionals who follow
