McKirahan, 2021-12-16 An astounding project of analysis on more than one hundred translations of ancient philosophical texts, this index of words found in the Ancient Commentators on Aristotle series comprises some 114,000 entries. It forms in effect a unique dictionary of philosophical terms from the post Hellenistic period through to late antiquity and will be an essential reference tool for any scholar working on the meaning of these ancient texts As traditional dictionaries have usually neglected to include translation examples from philosophical texts of this period scholars interested in how meanings of words vary across time and author have been ill served This index fills a huge gap therefore in the lexical analysis of ancient Greek and has application well beyond the reading of ancient philosophical commentaries Bringing together the full indexes from 110 of the volumes published in Bloomsbury s Ancient Commentators on Aristotle series McKirahan has combined each word entry and analysed how many times particular translations occur He presents his findings numerically so that each meaning in turn has a note as to the number of times it is used For meanings that are found between one and four times the volume details are also given so that readers may quickly and easily look up the texts themselves Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1983 Manuscripts, Texts, Theology David C. Parker,2009-07-14 David C Parker is one of the world s foremost specialists in the study of the New Testament text and of Greek and Latin manuscripts In addition to editions monographs and more popular writings he has published many articles on different aspects of textual criticism This volume brings together twentyfive of them in a revised and updated version The collection is divided into three topics The first deals with manuscript studies As well as three very different studies of Codex Bezae there are articles and reports on individual manuscripts and classes of manuscripts and reports on visits to libraries The second section has the theme of textual criticism It includes broader studies dealing with the theory of the discipline and more detailed discussions of particular problems including translations into Latin techniques for grouping Greek manuscripts and the comparison of modern editions The third section contains papers in which Parker has discussed the often overlooked relationship between textual criticism and theology These studies explore particular textual problems and their wider significance and cover topics as varied as Jesus and Textual Criticism Calvin s Biblical Text and The Early Tradition of Jesus Sayings on Divorce
