Documentary, Performance and Risk James Lyons,2019-08-23 Documentary Performance and Risk explores how some of the most significant recent American feature documentaries use performance to dramatically animate major categories of risk The fact that these documentaries do rely on such performance is revealing both in terms of trends in

American feature documentary and in relation to the currency of ideas about risk in contemporary Western societies The book takes a detailed look at the performance of risk and demonstrates the rewards of close critical attention to formal composition and performance Covering An Inconvenient Truth Super Size Me Capitalism A Love Story and Jackass The Movie it explores how these high profile films offer up compelling narratives and images of individuals acting on risk The films seek to both confront and control the contours of their environments in ways that reveal much about how a particular set of beliefs about risk and the individual have come to inform our lives This wide ranging analysis of feature documentary is ideal for scholars and postgraduate students studying documentary film film and media studies

Screening Social Justice Sherry B. Ortner, 2023-02-20 In Screening Social Justice award winning anthropologist Sherry B Ortner presents an ethnographic study of Brave New Films a nonprofit film production company that makes documentaries intended to mobilize progressive grassroots activism Ortner positions the work of the company within a tradition of activist documentary filmmaking and within the larger field of alternative media that is committed to challenging the mainstream media and telling the truth about the world today The company's films cover a range of social justice issues with particular focus on the hidden workings of capitalism racism and right wing extremism Beyond the films themselves Brave New Films is also famous for its creative distribution strategies All of the films are available for free on YouTube Central to the intention of promoting political activism the films circulate through networks of other activist and social justice organizations and are shown almost entirely in live screenings in which the power of the film is amplified Ortner takes the reader inside both the production process and the screenings to show how a film can be made and used to mobilize action for a better world
