

Summary

I'll be summarizing the short story from Paul Mechanics by Raymond Carver. The story depicts the issues surrounding divorce and the consequences that come with this action.

The author started by describing how the season changed where it's getting darker and at the point the snow is getting melted. A scene where a man is quickly tucking his garments into the box he carries around. The woman was relieved when she made her way to the bedroom realizing that he was stepping out but somehow upset that he even had the slightest idea of leaving. She cried after saying out loud "Son of a bitch! I am so glad you are leaving! (Carver, n.d).

As he was done packing his clothes, he headed towards the kitchen doorway where he met the woman carrying the baby. He stretched to take the baby from her but she blatantly refused him from doing that. He tried again but this time she moved closer to the stove in the kitchen, at this point the baby was already crying. He successfully grabbed the baby away from her tight grip. The man put him under his arm but the woman couldn't let go completely as she held on the baby's other arm and wrist tightly. The man held on to the baby and was not willing to let go. The story came to an end. "In this manner, the issue was decided." (Carver,n.d)

Though the story is interesting, I'm not comfortable with the fact that the baby had to go through that with the whole back and forth they exhibited. The baby was clearly helpless and I'm out here wondering what would have happened if he fell. The decision should be made without having to hurt anyone in the process.

O.C. Edwards JR.,2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church's ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 contains Edwards's magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching's development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time Origen Chrysostom Augustine Bernard Aquinas Luther Calvin Wesley Edwards Rauschenbusch Barth all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew Volume 2 available separately as 9781501833786 contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution. Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history. Ecumenical in scope, fair-minded in presentation, appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop, deliver, and listen to a sermon, A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel. This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years, says Ann K. Riggs, who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission. Author Edwards, former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary, is co-moderator of the commission, which studies church uniting and church dividing issues. A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches; we all participate in this field, says Riggs.

Transformations of the Classics via Early Modern Commentaries Karl A. E. Enenkel, 2013-11-29. Commentaries played an important role in the transmission of the classical heritage. Early modern intellectuals rarely read classical authors in a simple and direct form but generally via intermediary paratexts, especially all kinds of commentaries. Commentaries presented the classical texts in certain ways that determined and guided the readers perception and usages of the texts being commented upon Early modern commentaries shaped not only school and university education and professional scholarship but also intellectual and cultural life in the broadest sense including politics religion art entertainment health care geographical discoveries etc and even various professional activities and segments of life that were seemingly far removed from scholarship and learning such as warfare and engineering Contributors include Susanna de Beer Val ry Berlincourt Marijke Crab Jeanine De Landtsheer Karl Enenkel Gerg Gell rfi Trine Arlund Hass Ekaterina Ilyushechkina Ronny Kaiser Marc Laureys Christoph Pieper Katharina Suter Meyer and Floris Verhaart Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art ,1895 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910
