Fights of My Life Greg Combet,Mark Davis,2014-08-01 Greg Combet has been central to some of the biggest public struggles of our time on the waterfront the collapse of an airline compensation for asbestos victims the campaign against unfair workplace laws and then climate change From an idyllic childhood on the Minchinbury estate in the western suburbs of Sydney Combet's world changed dramatically with the early death of his wine maker father The shy child was uprooted to the suburbs and an uncertain future A scholarship allowed him to study engineering and saw him appreciate first hand the role of unions in the workplace He rose to lead the Australian trade union movement and become a senior minister in the Rudd and Gillard Labor governments Along the way he has battled his own struggles with political ideology the impact of work on families and the loneliness of the parliamentary life His story is not just a personal memoir it is an insight into how power works in Australia who holds it how it is used and the ruthless ways in which it is snatched The Fights of My Life is the story of a man who faces up to the power structures of politics big business and the media His latest target is the labour movement arguing that the Labor Party and the trade unions must democratise to engage the next generation of activists to fight the good fight to achieve a more fair and just Australia Flight, 1929 The ALS Guide to Australian Writers Martin Duwell, Laurie Hergenhan, 1992 Alphabetically organised chronological listing of the primary works of each author as well as selected critical biographical and historical articles and reviews and interviews Material is drawn from the series Annual Bibliographies of Studies in Australian Literature published in Australian Literary Studies between 1964 and 1991 The Limits of Peacekeeping: Volume 4, The Official History of Australian Peacekeeping, Humanitarian and Post-Cold War Operations Jean Bou, Bob Breen, David Horner, Garth Pratten, Miesje de Vogel, 2018-10-10 The Limits of Peacekeeping highlights the Australian government's peacekeeping efforts in Africa and the Americas from 1992 to 2005 Changing world power structures and increased international cooperation saw a boom in Australia's peacekeeping operations between 1991 and 1995 The initial optimism of this period proved to be misplaced as the limits of the United Nations and the international community to resolve deep seated problems became clear There were also limits on how many missions a middle sized country like Australia could support Restricted by the size of the armed forces and financial and geographic constraints peacekeeping was always a secondary task to ensuring the defence of Australia Faith in the effectiveness of peacekeeping reduced significantly and the election of the Howard Coalition Government in 1996 confined peacekeeping missions to the near region from 1996 2001 This volume is an authoritative and compelling history of Australia's changing attitudes towards peacekeeping
