Rhe-Z Robert Hunter,1897 The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism Bruce Gordon,Carl R. Trueman,2021-07-28 The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism offers a comprehensive assessment of John Calvin and the tradition of Calvinism as it evolved from the sixteenth century to today Featuring contributions from scholars who present the latest research on a pluriform religious movement that became a global faith The volume focuses on key aspects of Calvin s thought and its diverse reception in Europe the transatlantic world Africa South America and Asia Calvin s theology was from the beginning open to a wide range of interpretations and was never a static body of ideas and practices Over the course of his life his thought evolved and deepened while retaining unresolved tensions and questions that created a legacy that was constantly evolving in different cultural contexts Calvinism itself is an elusive term bringing together Christian communities that claim a shared heritage but often possess radically distinct characters The Handbook reveals fascinating patterns of continuity and change to demonstrate how the movement claimed the name of the Genevan reformer

but was moulded by an extraordinary range of religious intellectual and historical influences from the Enlightenment and Darwinism to indigenous African beliefs and postmodernism In its global contexts Calvinism has been continuously reimagined and reinterpreted This collection throws new light on the highly dynamic and fluid nature of a deeply influential form of Christianity Medieval Art, Architecture and Archaeology at Rochester: v. 28 Tim Ayers,2024-11-01 This collection of papers first delivered at the BAA s annual conference in 2002 celebrates medieval Rochester including both cathedral and castle an outstanding pair of surviving monuments to the power of contemporary church and state The contributions demonstrate the great interest of these understudied buildings their furnishings and historical and archaeological contexts from the rich documentary evidence for the Anglo Saxon town to the substantial surviving fabric of the 11th 12th and 13th centuries Shrines monuments woodwork and seals are all fully covered as well as the medieval monks themselves There is also a piece on Archbishop Courtenay s foundation of the nearby collegiate church at Maidstone Kent

Henderson,Stephen O'Neill,2022-03-24 The Arden Research Handbook of Shakespeare and Adaptation explores the dynamics of adapted Shakespeare across a range of literary genres and new media forms This comprehensive reference and research resource maps the field of Shakespeare adaptation studies identifying theories of adaptation their application in practice and the methodologies that underpin them It investigates current research and points towards future lines of enquiry for students researchers and creative practitioners of Shakespeare adaptation The opening section on research methods and problems considers definitions and theories of Shakespeare adaptation and emphasises how Shakespeare is both adaptor and adapted. A central section develops these theoretical concerns through a series of case studies that move across a range of genres, media forms and cultures to ask not only how Shakespeare is variously transfigured, hybridised and valorised through adaptational play but also how adaptations produce interpretive communities and within these potentially new literacies, modes of engagement and sensory pleasures. The volume's third section provides the reader with uniquely detailed insights into creative adaptation with writers and practice-based researchers reflecting on their close collaborations with Shakespeare's works as an aesthetic, ethical and political encounter. The Handbook further establishes the conceptual parameters of the field through detailed practical resources that will aid the specialist and non-specialist reader alike, including a guide to research resources and an annotated bibliography.

The Athenaeum, 1907 Thomas Hardy's Novel Universe Pamela Gossin, 2017-03-02 In this, the first book-length study of astronomy in Hardy's writing, historian of science and literary scholar Pamela Gossin brings the analytical tools of both disciplines to bear as she offers unexpected and sophisticated readings of seven novels that enrich Darwinian and feminist perspectives on his work. Gossin extends formalist evaluations of his achievement as a writer and provides fresh interpretations of enigmatic passages and scenes. In an elegantly crafted introduction, Gossin draws together the shared critical values and methods of literary studies and the history of science to articulate a hybrid model of scholarly interpretation and analysis that promotes cross-disciplinary compassion and understanding within the current contention of the science/culture wars. She then situates Hardy's own deeply interdisciplinary knowledge of astronomy and cosmology within both literary and scientific traditions from the ancient world through the Victorian era. Gossin offers insightful new assessments of A Pair of Blue Eyes, Far from the Madding Crowd, The Return of the Native, Two on a Tower, The Woodlanders, Tess of the D'Urbervilles and Jude the Obscure, arguing that Hardy's personal synthesis of ancient and modern astronomy with mythopoetic and scientific cosmologies enabled him to write as a literary cosmologist for the post-Darwinian world. The profound new myths that comprise Hardy's novel universe can be read as a sustained set of literary thought experiments by which he critiques the possibilities, limitations and dangers of living out the storylines that such imaginative cosmologies project for his time and ours.

Holy War Discourses in 1QM and John's Apocalypse David Chapman Harris, 2024-02-28 This study offers an in-depth examination of the Qumran War Scroll 1QM alongside John's Apocalypse, which takes the concept of Holy War into consideration. It delineates the differences between ancient Jewish and nascent Christian apocalyptic and theological sensibilities and breaks the conventional barrier between Qumran studies and New Testament studies.
