The Trouble With Art Roger Sansi, Jonas Tinius, 2024-10-31 Art troubles anthropology Anthropologists have often taken a philistine sceptical position of distance towards art and aesthetics as a predominantly Western bourgeois institution But art not only as a Western institution generated its own philistine and iconoclastic revisions and undoings its anti art that have engaged anthropology into its theory and practice Anthropology is thus part of the trouble with art But trouble doesn't necessarily obfuscate it can also reveal and render visible fault lines and problems troubles can be assemblages of disparate and even contradictory parts that paradoxically do work together This volume proposes an anthropology that moves beyond philistinism and the contradictions between critical anthropologies of art and collaborative and experimental anthropologies with art

The Sent Down Iron: Painting Solo Exhibition Catalog Doni Riwan, Eiwand Suryo, Ahmad Sastra, Pay Jarot Sujarwo, 2020-10-04 The iron origin draws attention Deni Junaedi to be materialized to paintings Iron did not come from the earth but the heaven Deni expressed the phenomenon via watercolors Iron was sent down to the earth from supernova The explosion of a giant star spread its iron to the universe and gave the packet of gift to the earth Therefore he named his concept The Sent Down Iron The artist frequently chose gears as the representation of iron On certain occasion he brought international issues for these artworks However he remained using forms made from iron to base his ideas Deni employed melting effect of watercolors for the depiction The artist also applied some other painting techniques such as wet on wet and watercolor splash There are not so many artists who stick with working on watercolor arts especially in Yogyakarta Utilizing watercolor material generally is only as extra media or mixed media in artworks Thus it is consented that it is a lonely path having been chosen by a Jogja artist whose name is Deni Junaedi or well known as Deni Je He is an energetic figure born in Sukerojo Kendal June 21st 1973 that I recognize as a tough man With bachelor's degree 1997 2004 at Indonesian Art Institute of Yogyakarta ISI Fine Arts Faculty Pure Arts Department Specialization in Art Painting and Post Graduate Degree 2010 2012 at Performing Fine Arts Study Post Graduate Program UGM Yogyakarta he is able brought forward his career as a Lecturer at ISI Yogyakarta Moreover Bung Deni is also now active in his creative room as a content creator in PAINTING EXPLORER Channel Having been active at artworks and exhibition since 1991 till now he is certainly undoubted of his interest in arts Watercolor as artwork media by Deni is the right choice and to be his expertise

Walking Methods Maggie O'Neill, Brian Roberts, 2019-07-09 This book introduces and critically explores walking as an innovative method for doing social research showing how its sensate and kinaesthetic attributes facilitate connections with lived experiences journeys and memories communities and identities The book situates walking methods historically sociologically and in relation to biographical and arts based research as well as new work on mobilities the digital spatial and the sensory The book is organised into three sections theorising experiencing and imagining walking as a new method for doing biographical research There is a key focus upon the Walking Interview as a Biographical Method WIBM on the move to usefully explore migration memory and urban landscapes as part of participatory visual and ethnographic research with marginalised communities and artists and as re formative and transgressive The book concludes with autobiographical walks taken by the authors and a discussion about the future of the walking interview as biographical method Walking Methods combines theory with a series of original ethnographic and participatory research examples Practical exercises and a guide to using walking as a method help to make this a rich resource for social science researchers students walking artists and biographical researchers Art and the City Jason Luger, Julie Ren, 2017-05-18 Artistic practices have long been disturbing the relationships between art and space They have challenged the boundaries of performer spectator of public private introduced intervention and installation ephemerality and performance and constantly sought out new modes of distressing expectations about what is construed as art But when we expand the world in which we look at art how does this change our understanding of critical artistic practice This book presents a global perspective on the relationship between art and the city International and leading scholars and artists themselves present critical theory and practice of contemporary art as a politicised force It extends thinking on contemporary arts practices in the urban and political context of protest and social resilience and offers the prism of a critical artscape in which to view the urgent interaction of arts and the urban politic The global appeal of the book is established through the general topic as well as the specific chapters which are geographically socially politically and professionally varied Contributing authors come from many different institutional and anti institutional perspectives from across the world This will be valuable reading for those interested in cultural geography urban geography and urban culture as well as contemporary art theorists practitioners and policymakers Transregional Connections in the History of East-Central Europe Katja Castryck-Naumann, 2021-10-25 Transregional connections play a fundamental role in the history of East Central Europe This volume explores this connectivity by showing how people from eastern and central parts of Europe have positioned themselves within global processes while in turn also shaping them The contributions examine different fields of action such as economy arts international regulations and law development aid and migration focusing on the period between the middle of the nineteenth century and the end of the Cold War The authors uncover spaces of interaction and emphasize that internal and external entanglements have established East Central Europe as a distinct region Understanding the connectedness of this subregion is stimulating for the historiography of East Central Europe as it is for the field of global history Fashionability, Exhibition Culture and Gender Politics Meaghan Clarke, 2020-06-11 Fair Women was the Victorian equivalent of a blockbuster exhibition Organised by a committee of women it opened to great fanfare in the Grafton Galleries in London and was comprised of both historical and contemporary portraits of women as well as decorative objects Meaghan Clarke argues that the exhibition challenged contemporary assumptions about the representation of women and the superficiality of female collectors The Fair Women phenomenon complicated gender stereotypes and foregrounded women as cultural arbiters This book uncovers a wide range of texts and images to reveal that Fair Women brought together fashion modernity and gender politics in new and surprising ways It shows that while invariably absent in institutional histories women were vital to the development of the modern blockbuster exhibition This book will be of interest to scholars
