- When more shares are applied for than the number to be issued e.g. Telstra and the Commonwealth Bank
- Two approaches to manage oversubscription include:
 1. satisfy full demand of a certain number of subscribers and refund the funds advanced by others
 2. issue shares to all subscribers on a pro rata basis
 - excess moneys on application can either be refunded or used to reduce further moneys owing on allotment
- Refer to Worked Example 13.3, 'Issue of partly paid shares', pp. 535–6
