his mother's rural home to inform her of his elder brother's death. First educated at the Native College in Grahamstown, Stephen was sent to England in 1869 for training at the Missionary College in Canterbury. But on his return to South Africa, relegated to a dilapidated mission near Fort Beaufort, he had to confront not only the prejudices of a colonial society but the discrimination within the Church itself. Conflicted between his loyalties to the amaNgqika people for whom his brother fought and the colonial cause, he as Reverend Mzamane is expected to uphold Stephen's journey to his mother's home, proves decisive in resolving the contradictions that tear at his heart.
