Ross,Yvonne Crichton-Hill,Arindam Basu,Patrick Vakaoti,Rosemarie Martin-Neuninger,2022-01-07 This book provides a comparative analysis of how communities have developed people based resilience in response to the global impact of COVID 19 The crisis of the capitalist economy due to border closure downturn in business loss of jobs and large scale destruction of people s well being has worsened poverty and inequality worsened the situation of the already marginalized At the same time it has provided the opportunity for indigenous and marginalized communities to innovatively strengthen their social and solidarity economies to respond the unprecedented calamity in a self empowering and sustainable way The book explores some of the ways in which local communities have mobilized their cultural resources to strengthen their social solidarity and mitigating mechanisms against the continuing global calamity It looks at how different communities approach social protection as a way of sustaining their well being outside the parameters of the ailing market economy and how some of these can provide valuable lessons for strengthening resilience for the future
