

- Accommodation bookings
 - Proof of financial means to cover expenses during your stay
 - Evidence of ties to India (such as employment letter, property ownership documents, or family relationships)
 - Any additional supporting documents specific to your purpose of visit (e.g., invitation letters, business-related documents)
6. Attend Biometric Appointment: On the scheduled date and time, attend your biometric appointment at the Visa Application Center. Provide your biometric data as required.
 7. Submit Documents and Pay Fee: After completing the biometric appointment, submit all required documents along with the visa application fee at the Visa Application Center. The fee can usually be paid online or at the VAC.
 8. Track Application: After submitting your application, you can track its progress online using the reference number provided to you during the application process. Visa processing times vary, so it's essential to monitor your application status regularly.
 9. Receive Decision: Once a decision has been made on your visa application, you'll be notified via email or SMS. If your visa is approved, you'll receive a visa vignette (sticker) in your passport, allowing you to travel to the UK within the validity period specified.
 10. Travel to the UK: Upon receiving your visa, you can make travel arrangements to visit the UK within the validity period granted. Make sure to carry all necessary documents, including your passport with the visa vignette, during your travel.

It's crucial to apply for your UK visitor visa well before your planned travel dates to allow sufficient time for processing and avoid any last-minute complications. Additionally, ensure that all information provided in your application is accurate and truthful to prevent delays or potential visa refusal.

Perks of Applying for a UK Visitor Visa from India
