Visions For Black Men:

Visions for Black Men Na'im Akbar, 1993 Visions for Black Men Naim Akbar, 1991-08-01 NEW VISIONS FOR BLACK MEN. NA'IM. AKBAR, 2016 The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents Kirkland C. Vaughans, Warren Spielberg, 2014-06-30 Drawing on personal insights and research based knowledge this important work facilitates understanding of the psychological struggles of young African American males and offers ameliorative strategies Despite examples set by successful black men in all walks of life the truth remains that a disproportionate number of black boys and young men underperform at school suffer from PTSD and too often find themselves on a pathway to jail The two volume The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents marks the first attempt to catalog the many psychological influences that can stack the deck against black male children and to suggest interventions Bringing together an expansive collection of new and classic research from a wide variety of disciplines this set sheds light on the complex circumstances faced by young black men in the United States Contributions by authors Kirkland Vaughans and Warren Spielberg contain insights from the groundbreaking Brotherman study conducted over a ten year period to report on the lives and psychological challenges of over a hundred African American boys and their families Among the myriad issues studied in this set are the often negative expectations of society the influence of gangs and the impact of racism and poverty Of equal importance the work explores culturally specific ways to engage families youths communities and policymakers in the development of healthy safe educated boys who will become whole and successful adults Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado, 1999-07 A groundbreaking anthology of essays providing commentary on gender and sexuality inclusion in the antiracist movement In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women s quest for racial equality and the heterosexist nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado s anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic Cross-cultural Visions in African American Modernism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2006 Yoshinobu Hakutani traces the development of African American modernism which initially gathered momentum with Richard Wright's literary manifesto Blueprint for Negro Writing in 1937. Hakutani dissects and discusses the cross-cultural influences on the then burgeoning discipline in three stages: American dialogues, European and African cultural visions, and Asian and African American cross-cultural visions. In writing Black Boy, the centerpiece of the Chicago Renaissance, Wright was inspired by Theodore Dreiser. Because the European and African cultural visions that Wright, Ralph Ellison, Alice Walker, and Toni Morrison acquired were buttressed by the universal humanism that is common to all cultures, this ideology is shown to transcend the problems of society. Fascinated by Eastern thought and art, Wright, Walker, Sonia Sanchez, and James Emanuel wrote highly accomplished poetry and prose. Like Ezra Pound, Wright was drawn to classic haiku, as reflected in the 4,000 haiku he wrote at the end of his life. As W.B. Yeats's symbolism was influenced by his cross-cultural visions of Noh theatre and Irish folklore, so is James Emanuel's jazz haiku energized by his cross-cultural rhythms of Japanese poetry and African American music. The book demonstrates some of the most visible cultural exchanges in modern and postmodern African American literature. Such a study can be extended to other contemporary African American writers whose works also thrive on their cross-cultural visions, such as Amiri Baraka, Ishmael Reed, Charles Johnson, and haiku poet Lenard Moore.

Men Educators of Color in U.S. Public Schools and Abroad
Ashley N. Woodson, Travis J. Bristol, 2023-12-11. This book reflects the diversity and possibility of critical research in education with an emphasis on the examination of the intersections of social identities for men teachers of color and the relationship between social identity and struggles for political and professional agency. The authors address race and race inequality in education and provide a strong theoretical foundation for filling the empirical gap on men teachers of color by engaging in questions such as: How do critical considerations of the intersection of race, gender, and profession inform the future of teacher education? What does it mean to be men or of color in the context of the teaching profession in the U.S. and abroad? What are the aims of ethnoracial diversity in the field of education? The research included in this edited volume explores topics including but not limited to: men teachers of color and their perceived pathways to the profession; their perceptions of and partnerships with colleagues of other genders; their sexual and gendered identities and performances; and how they embrace, reject, or negotiate the expectations of performing as a role model in classrooms. Moreover, the chapters provide explicit implications for teachers, teacher educators, university and PK-12 administrators, education activists, and/or education policymakers. In sum, this volume charts a new landscape in education research for all men teachers of color. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Race, Ethnicity and Education.

African American Women and Sexuality in the Cinema
Norma Manatu, 2014-01-10. The representation of African American women is an important issue in the overall study of how women are portrayed in film and has received serious attention in recent years. Traditionally, women of color, particularly African American women, have been at the margins of studies of women's on-screen depictions or excluded altogether. This work focuses exclusively on the sexual objectification of African American women in film from the 1980s to the early 2000s Critics of the negative sexual imagery have long speculated that control by African American filmmakers would change how African American women are depicted This work examines sixteen films made by males both white and black to see how the imagery might change with the race of the filmmaker Four dimensions are given special attention the diversity of the women's roles and relationships with men the sexual attitudes of the African American female characters their attitudes towards men and their nonverbal and verbal sexual behaviors This work also examines the role culture has played in perpetuating the images how film influences viewers perception of African American women and their sexuality and how the imagery polarizes women by functioning as a regulator of their sexual behaviors based on cultural definitions of the feminine

Sociological Visions Kai Erikson, 1997 All of the essays are by authors whose sociological vision has had a profound impact on our culture African American Males Dionne J. Jones, African American Males

The Media War on Black Male Youth in Urban Education Darius Prier, 2017-03-27 News media film and the music industry have become powerful sources of misrepresentation of Black male life in the social imagination of white society The pedagogy of popular culture has important implications for educators and youth advocates who desire to challenge the myths and distortions that ultimately harm youth This volume raises awareness of the media war on Black male youth in popular culture and the impact this image battle has on the discriminatory treatment of the population in urban educational settings Citing the recent controversial deaths of Trayvon Martin and Jordan Davis the portrayal of black males in contemporary films and the locus of hip hop masculinities this volume offers a unique framework for analyzing how contemporary image making practices affect Black male youth in urban education It also offers ethical considerations for educators in their critique consumption and reading of Black male subjectivity in media and provides avenues for practical applications of critical media literacy on the ground

Militant Visions Elizabeth Reich, 2016-08-01 Militant Visions examines how from the 1940s to the 1970s the cinematic figure of the black soldier helped change the ways American moviegoers saw black men for the first time presenting African Americans as vital and integrated members of the nation In the process Elizabeth Reich reveals how the image of the proud and powerful African American serviceman was crafted by an unexpected alliance of government propagandists civil rights activists and black filmmakers Contextualizing the figure in a genealogy of black radicalism and internationalism Reich shows the evolving images of black soldiers to be inherently transnational ones shaped by the displacements of diaspora Third World revolutionary philosophy and a legacy of black artistry and performance Offering a nuanced reading of a figure that was simultaneously conservative and radical Reich considers how the cinematic black soldier lent a human face to ongoing debates about racial integration black internationalism and American militarism Militant Visions thus not only presents a new history of how American cinema represented race but also demonstrates how film images helped to make history shaping the progress of the civil rights movement itself

A Gift Grows in the Ghetto Jay-Paul Michael Hinds, 2022-10-25 In his classic essay Of Our Spiritual

Strivings W E B Du Bois asks how does it feel to be a problem This question has become a means of diagnosing the lived experience of Black men particularly in America s most neglected and feared environment the ghetto What is often overlooked however is the vital role that spirituality has in remedying the problem A Gift Grows in the Ghetto examines how not being in relationship with one s gift can lead to feelings of despair entrapment and abandonment all of which contribute to Black men feeling as though they are nothing more than a problem By utilizing the biblical story of Ishmael s miraculous survival growth and giftedness in the wilderness the book encourages Black men to embrace a life of faith that is dependent on the God who always sees nurtures and is in relationship with us and our gifts in the wilderness and the ghetto

American Visions Edward L. Ayers, 2023-10-24 An inspiring book American Visions beautifully shows how remarkably resilient dreams of a better republic remained even in the darkest of times Christoph Irmscher Wall Street Journal A revealing history of the formative period when voices of dissent and innovation defied power and created visions of America still resonant today With so many of our histories falling into dour critique or blatant celebration here is a welcome departure a book that offers hope as well as honesty about the American past The early decades of the nineteenth century saw the expansion of slavery Native dispossession and wars with Canada and Mexico Mass immigration and powerful religious movements sent tremors through American society But even as the powerful defended the status quo others defied it voices from the margins moved the center eccentric visions altered the accepted wisdom and acts of empathy questioned self interest Edward L Ayers s rich history examines the visions that moved Frederick Douglass Margaret Fuller the Native American activist William Apess and others to challenge entrenched practices and beliefs So Lydia Maria Child condemned the racism of her fellow northerners at great personal cost Melville and Thoreau Joseph Smith and Samuel Morse all charted new paths for America in the realms of art nature belief and technology It was Henry David Thoreau who speaking of John Brown challenged a hostile crowd Is it not possible that an individual may be right and a government wrong Through decades of award winning scholarship on the Civil War Edward L Ayers has himself ventured beyond the interpretative status quo to recover the range of possibilities embedded in the past as it was lived Here he turns that distinctive historical sensibility to a period when bold visionaries and critics built vigorous traditions of dissent and innovation into the foundation of the nation Those traditions remain alive for us today
