The Parthenon Marbles and International Law Catharine Titi, 2023-05-24 The Parthenon marbles case is the most famous international cultural heritage dispute concerning repatriation of looted antiquities the Parthenon marbles in the British Museum's Elgin Collection The case has polarised observers ever since Elgin had the marbles hacked out of the ancient temple at the turn of the 19th century in Ottoman occupied Athens In 1816 a debt stricken Elgin sold the marbles to the British government which subsequently entrusted them to the British Museum where they have remained since then Much ink has been spilled on the Parthenon marbles The ethical and cultural merits of their repatriation have been fiercely debated for years But what has generally not been considered are the legal merits of their return in light of contemporary international law This book is the first in legal scholarship to provide an international law perspective of the cause a lot of international cultural heritage disputes and in doing so to clarify the new customary international law on the return of cultural property unlawfully removed from its original context The book which includes a foreword by Andrew Wallace Hadrill is a unique reference work on the legal case for the return of the Parthenon marbles and the new normative framework for the protection of cultural heritage The Permanence of Temporary Urbanism Mara Ferreri, 2025-10-01

Temporary urbanism has become a distinctive feature of urban life after the 2008 global financial crisis This book offers a critical exploration of its emergence and establishment as a seductive discourse and as an entangled field of practice encompassing architecture visual and performative arts urban regeneration policies and planning Drawing on seven years of semi ethnographic research it explores the politics of temporariness from a situated analysis of neighbourhood transformation media representations and wider political and cultural shifts in austerity London Through a longitudinal engagement with projects and practitioners the book tests the power of aesthetic and cultural interventions and highlights tensions between the promise of vacant space re appropriation and its commodification Against the normalisation of ephemerality it presents a critique of the permanence of temporary urbanism as a glamorisation of the anticipatory politics of precarity which are transforming cities subjectivities and imaginaries of urban action Money and Marketing in the Art World Henrik Hagtvedt, 2024-10-21

How does the art market choose its winners thereby also deciding what millions of visitors to galleries and museums will view year after year Whereas art historical writing and contemporary commentary tend to highlight the efforts of specific artists this book illustrates how money and marketing in combination with general trends play decisive roles in shaping the art world and in propelling specific artists and artworks to positions of prominence Today perhaps more than ever before the high profile art world is primarily shaped by buyers and those who cater to buyers The actual artists although most visible to the public tend to play a secondary role The time seems particularly ripe for transparency about how the art world works given the growth in the art market media attention on and popular interest in high priced art and controversy surrounding public funding for art and the value of art for contemporary society With a combination of marketplace observations marketing insights and relevant research findings this book contributes to increased transparency while providing thought provoking digressions and anecdotes along the way Money and Marketing in the Art World offers an accessible analysis of the art market for scholars and graduate students across arts marketing and management as well as for those more broadly interested in art and business Vanity Fair, 2014 Art of the Deal Noah Horowitz, 2014-08-31

An eye opening look at collecting and investing in today's art market Art today is defined by its relationship to money as never before Prices have been driven to unprecedented heights conventional boundaries within the art world have collapsed and artists think ever more strategically about how to advance their careers Art is no longer simply made but packaged sold and branded In Art of the Deal Noah Horowitz exposes the inner workings of the contemporary art market explaining how this unique economy came to be how it works and where it's headed In a new postscript Horowitz

reflects on the market's continued ascent as well as its most urgent challenges
