Sex, Love, Race Martha Hodes, 1999 Since the colonial era North America has been defined and continually redefined by the intersections of sex violence and love across racial boundaries Motivated by conquest economics desire and romance such crossings have profoundly affected American society by disturbing dominant ideas about race and sexuality Sex Love Race provides a historical foundation for contemporary discussions of sex across racial lines which despite the numbers of interracial marriages and multi racial children remains a controversial issue today The first historical anthology to focus solely and widely on the subject Sex Love Race gathers new essays by both younger and well known scholars which probe why and how sex across racial boundaries has so threatened Americans of all colors and classes Traversing the whole of American history from liaisons among Indians Europeans and Africans to twentieth century social scientists fascination with sex between Asian Americans and whits the essays cover a range of regions and of racial ethnic and sexual identities in North America Back cover Confessions of a Streetwalker David L. McKenna, 2016-05-10 In 2005 my wife Jan and I moved into a condo along the shores of Lake Washington Even though I had served as President of Seattle Pacific University back in the 1970s I was unknown on the streets of the resort like village of Kirkland Washington Each morning Molly our Maltese puppy and I went across the street for her potty break and exercise Soon with Molly as the introducer I discovered a new world where strangers became friends through the connection of our dogs Later after two back surgeries Jan joined us on our daily walk down the street through the village and around the park by using a doggie stroller as a substitute for a walker The sight of the three of us walking down the street with Molly peering forward from her seat at the helm of the stroller became a phenomenon of its own on the streets of Kirkland Together we walked through an open door of learning and found that friendship based upon listening caring and giving is a grace that God reserves for plain people who walk daily and serve joyfully in common places 2030 Mauro F. The 758th Tank Battalion in World War II Joe Wilson, Jr., 2018-04-24 In 1941 the U S Army activated the 758th Tank Battalion the first all black armored unit By December 1944 they were fighting the Axis in Northern Italy from the Ligurian Sea through the Po Valley and into the Apennine Mountains where they helped breach the Gothic Line the Germans last major defensive line of the Italian Campaign After the war the 758th was deactivated but was reformed as the 64th Tank Battalion keeping their distinguished insignia a tusked elephant head over the motto We Pierce They entered the Korean War still segregated but returned fully integrated though discrimination continued internally Through the years they fought with almost every American tank the Stuart the Sherman the Pershing the Patton and today s Abrams Victorious over two fascist and racist regimes many black servicemen returned home to what they hoped would be a more tolerant nation Most were bitterly disappointed segregation was still the law of the land For many disappointment became a determination to fight discrimination with the same resolve that had defeated the Axis

Movie Comedians of the 1950s Wes D. Gehring, 2016-11-03 The 1950s were a transitional period for film comedians The artistic suppression of the McCarthy era and the advent of television often resulted in a dumbing down of motion pictures Cartoonist turned director Frank Tashlin contributed a funny but cartoonish effect through his work with comedians like Jerry Lewis and Bob Hope A new vanguard of comedians appeared without stock comic garb or make up fresh faces not easily pigeonholed as merely comedians such as Tony Randall Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis Some traditional comedians like Charlie Chaplin Red Skelton and Danny Kaye continued their shtick though with some evident tweaking This book provides insight into a misunderstood decade of film history with an examination of the personality comedians The talents of Dean Martin and Bob Hope are reappraised and the dumb blonde stereotype as applied to Judy Holliday and Marilyn Monroe is deconstructed

Lawyers and the Rule of Law Andrew Boon, 2022-10-20 This book examines lawyers contributions to creating and maintaining the rule of law one of the pillars of a liberal democracy It moves from the European Enlightenment to the modern day exploring the role of judges government lawyers and private practitioners in creating defining and being defined by the demands of modern society The book is divided into 4 parts representing the big themes The first part considers lawyers contribution to the growth of constitutionalism the second the formulation of roles and identities and the third the formation of values The fourth part focuses on the challenges faced by lawyers and the rule of law in the past 50 years the neoliberal period and how they challenge both conceptions of lawyers and the rule of law Each part is illustrated by defining events from the execution of Charles I through the Nuremberg Trials to the insurrection by supporters of Donald Trump in January 2021 Although the focus is on England and Wales parallel developments in other jurisdictions Australia Canada New Zealand and the USA are considered This allows analysis of lawyers historical and contemporary engagement with the rule of law in jurisdictional systems based on the Common Law Each chapter is thematic but the passage through the book is broadly chronological

The Art of Fatherhood Noah Charney, Miha Mazzini, 2025-10-02 Fatherhood is a fundamental aspect of human existence and a central theme in the arts Yet depictions of fathers in art have been overshadowed by those of mothers and children This book explores representations of fathers in visual culture and literature throughout history from ancient to contemporary times and around the world It includes a broad definition of fathers which also covers father figures and metaphorical fathers The portrayal of fathers in art literature and film has evolved over time reflecting the changing societal attitudes towards fatherhood From the early depictions of father figures as providers and protectors to the more recent portrayals of fathers as involved and nurturing parents art has explored the complexities and challenges of being a father while also showcasing the joys and rewards that come with the role This will be the definitive look at how fathers have been portrayed in the arts and how that reflects cultural and societal views on fatherhood through history Through this we will draw out lessons on how to be a good father and apply it to parenting today It is the ideal gift for new fathers on Father's Day or following the birth of a first child

The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
