Discrimination in an Unequal World Miguel Angel Centeno,Katherine S. Newman,2010-09 Is globalization making our world more equal or less Proponents of globalization argue that it is helping and that in a competitive world no one can afford to discriminate except on the basis of skills Opponents counter that globalization does nothing but provide a meritocratic patina on a consistently unequal distribution of opportunity Yet despite the often deafening volume of the debate there is surprisingly little empirical work available on the extent to which the process of globalization over the past quarter century has had any effect on discrimination Tackling this challenge Discrimination in an Unequal World explores the relationship between discrimination and unequal outcomes in the appropriate geographical and historical context Noting

how each society tends to see its particular version of discrimination as universal and obvious the editors expand their set of cases to include a broad variety of social relations and practices However since methods differ and are often designed for particular national circumstances they set the much more ambitious and practical goal of establishing a base with which different forms of discrimination across the world can be compared Derived from a broad array of methods the book draws many important lessons on the new means by which the world creates social hierarchies the democratization of inequality and the disappearance of traditional categories

Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of
