Nelson Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa, Denver A. Webb, 2024-08-20 South Africa's higher education sector is rooted in the country's divided past. A significant State-driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities. But just over two decades later for a variety of reasons the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges. Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process. The university is in an ongoing state of evolution of becoming. It developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth, Port Elizabeth Technikon and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005. In 2017 it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world-renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located. The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake. Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm imbues its strategy, public statements and practices. The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar. A cross-section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution. While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose framing itself as a values-based university on a journey to become something else. In Achieving Nelson Mandela University the university attempts to give an account of itself. The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go.

Case Studies on Sustainability in the Food Industry Samuel O. Idowu, René Schmidpeter, 2022-09-23 The world's population continues to grow year after year putting pressure on all global resources. This book provides examples of how we can deal with all the challenges associated with aspects of population growth in the quest for sustainable development. It presents case studies on different areas of sustainability in the food industry which includes food production and consumption. The collection of illustrative examples includes cases from agriculture and fisheries, the food refining sector, the supply chain, wholesale and retail channels and other relevant aspects that enhance our understanding of how sustainability takes place in this global sector. The book will appeal to a wide readership from practitioners to researchers, teachers and students worldwide.

Responsibility of Higher Education Systems, 2020-06-29 The evolving societal, political and economic landscape has led to increased demands on higher education institutions to make their contribution and benefits to society more visible and in many cases with fewer public resources. This book contributes to the understanding of the responsibilities of Higher Education and the challenges posed to the production and circulation of knowledge. It raises questions about the role of higher education in society, its responsibility towards students and staff and regarding its intended impact The book brings together a range of topical papers and a diversity of perspectives scientific investigations of reputed scholars critical evidence based papers of third space professionals and policymakers perspectives on the daily practice and management of higher education institutions and systems The variety of both content and contributors elevates the richness of the book and its relevance for a large audience Contributors are Victor M H Borden Lex Borghans Bruno Broucker Hamish Coates Gwilym Croucher Lisa Davidson Mark Engberg Philipp Friedrich Martina Gaisch Solomon Gebreyohans Gebru Ton Kallenberg Kathi A Ketcheson Lu Liu Alfredo Marra Clare Milsom Kenneth Moore Roberto Moscati Marjolein Muskens Daniela N meyer Attila Pausits Svetlana Shenderova Wafa Singh Chuanyi Wang Denyse Webbstock Gregory Wolniak and Jiale Yang See inside the book Service-Learning Paradigms Kenneth Colburn, Jr., Rona Newmark, 2007-07 The papers in this volume have been selected primarily from the presentations at the International Symposium on Service Learning cosponsored by Stellenbosch University in South Africa and the University of Indianapolis in the United States It aims to explore service learning paradigms for the 21st century New Paradigms for Theory Research and Curriculum Development New Paradigms for Teaching and Learning and Paradigms for Intercommunity and Interdisciplinary Collaboration This volume provides clear evidence that the paradigm of service learning has gone global and international Service learning has become the new coin of the academic and civic realm for issues of connecting teaching scholarship and community services
