To my Son

I closed my eyes for a moment and suddenly a man stood where a boy used to be I may not carry you now in my arms
But I will always carry you in my heart.
You have given me so many reason to be proud of the man you have become.
But the proudest moment for me, is telling others that you are my son!
I love you now and forever.
Always wrap yourself up in this and consider it a big hug !!

Love, Mom

Text and Paratext Gregory Goswell, 2023-01-25 The neglected contexts for biblical interpretation Context is king so the maxim goes Sensitivity to context of a verse chapter or book is essential for proper biblical interpretation Yet the Bible contains another set of key clues that readers rarely consider In Text and Paratext Gregory Goswell explores paratext and its implications for biblical interpretation Paratextual features are the parts of a text that surround the main text itself such as a book s canonical location title and internal divisions These features have been intentionally added to support the text and direct readers Different arrangements of the Old and New Testaments reveal connections and associations A book s title announces the focus of its content Book divisions create breaks and form units of text Commentary is baked into paratextual features making every Bible a study Bible Rather than veiling the text s meaning paratext highlights interpretive possibilities both ancient and fresh While often overlooked paratextual features guided interpretation throughout church history and should inform our study of Scripture today With the help of glossaries and study questions Goswell s study equips readers to understand paratext and its implications and become better interpreters of the Bible
