The Believers Zoe Heller, 2009 The book opens with a prologue set in mid sixties London where Joel Litvinoff an American civil rights lawyer meets a young Englishwoman Audrey After a brief and apparently casual affair she decides to go to the United States and marry him The main narrative

then commences in New York in 2002 Joel is 72 and approaching the end of a long and illustrious career as an activist lawyer He and Audrey live in Greenwich Village and have three adult children two daughters Rosa and Karla and an adopted son Lenny Audrey is now an acid tongued domineering woman in late middle age who fiercely defends but never questions the political stance that has shaped her life Her most tender feelings appear to be directed towards Lenny a frequent drug user who is incapable of personal responsibility Karla the neglected and under appreciated oldest child is a social worker who is married not very happily to Mike They have been trying unsuccessfully to start a family Rosa works with disadvantaged young girls She is becoming increasingly interested in Judaism a faith rejected along with all others by her Jewish parents For this she is much derided by Audrey Joel suffers a stroke while in court and is in a coma for most of the time span covered by the book Audrey is convinced he is not getting proper care in the hospital and creates difficulties for its medical staff During this time of stress Karla s unhappiness with her marriage rises to the surface She begins an affair with Khaled originally from Egypt who runs a newspaper store at the hospital where they both work Rosa immerses herself in the study of Orthodox Judaism and though she finds many of its teachings difficult to accept though she perseveres A stranger Berenice Mason introduces herself to Audrey claiming that her son is Joel s illegitimate child Though Audrey initially dismisses her with contempt it emerges that her story is true and that Berenice has been receiving regular financial support from Joel Lenny is persuaded by Audrey s friend Jean to go to her country home in Pennsylvania for a month in order to get off drugs He makes great progress there and when Audrey visits he proposes settling in Pennsylvania permanently Appalled by the prospect of losing him Audrey does her best to discourage the idea Rosa abandons and then takes up again her studies in Orthodox Judaism deciding finally that she must pursue her religious intuitions Joel dies without regaining consciousness At his funeral which is attended by thousands Audrey gives a eulogy in which she celebrates her 40 year marriage to her husband and makes a public acknowledgment of Berenice and her son At the reception afterwards Karla makes a last minute momentous decision regarding her own marriage From the Hardcover edition

Jesus in the Victorian Novel Jessica Ann Hughes, 2022-01-27 This book tells the story of how nineteenth century writers turned to the realist novel in order to reimagine Jesus during a century where traditional religious faith appeared increasingly untenable Re workings of the canonical Gospels and other projects to demythologize the story of Jesus are frequently treated as projects aiming to secularize and even discredit traditional Christian faith The novels of Charles Kingsley George Eliot Eliza Lynn Linton and Mary Augusta Ward however demonstrate that the work of bringing the Christian tradition of prophet priest and king into conversation with a rapidly changing world can at times be a form of authentic faith even a faith that remains rooted in the Bible and historic Christianity while simultaneously creating a space that allows traditional understandings of Jesus identity to evolve

The Leatherstocking (Historical Novel) William

Dean Howells, 2016-01-02 This carefully crafted ebook The Leatherwood God Historical Novel is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents Leatherwood God or Joseph C Dylkes was a messianic figure in the early settlement of the Ohio Country in the United States The legend of this man from Leatherwood Creek who convinced the people of Ohio that he is a living god served as an inspiration to William Dean Howells for one of his last novels which is quite different from the majority of his works In the calm city of Salesville Ohio on a warm August day shows up a certain man named Joseph Dylkes claiming that he is the Lord God Himself causing an uproar in the community He proposes to perform a miracle to prove his case but he doesn't show up and he's being called a fraud by angry non-believers but keeps a number of believers at his side After series of situations he disappears without a trace leaving the people of Salesville torn William Dean Howells 1837-1920 was an American realist author literary critic and playwright He was the first American author to bring a realist aesthetic to the literature of the United States His stories of Boston upper crust life set in the 1850s are highly regarded among scholars of American fiction Words of Wisdom Dr. Vinod Kumar Mahawar, 2024-11-21 This book for Three Four Semester Undergraduate Programme for University of Rajasthan Jaipur and other State University of Rajasthan Syllabus as Per NEP 2020 In this book also includes poems stories essays and novels with about writers glossary and questions Re-Reading Tragic Africa Amy Rushton, 2024-05-31 Grounded in world systemic analysis this book revisits the literary and social implications of tragedy in relation to global narratives about Africa and within fiction by writers from the continent It argues that working through the full complexity of tragedy helps to identify and challenge plots that depict Africa as reaching a tragic impasse Instead reconsidering tragedy allows for further related interventions including the implications of narratives of development the argument for formally engaging with literary texts that present challenging material reformulations of African political and cultural agency and the possibilities to be found in utopian thinking It claims that contemporary fiction helps to scrutinise the familiar big picture of Africa and create space for discussions about wider political and historical commonalities between the continent and the rest of the world As such the novels discussed in this study are not simply about Africa these fictional narratives position Africa as a central actor within the global history of late capitalism The Novels and Other Works of Lyof N. Tolstoi graf Leo Tolstoy, 1911 Coming of Age in the Afro-Latin American Novel Bonnie S. Wasserman, 2022 This book is the first study of recent coming of age novels from Brazil and the Spanish speaking Caribbean I investigate the divide in Afro Latin American research that usually favors either Hispanic America or Brazil but not both I argue that contemporary novelists have adapted the coming of age novel to explore central themes in the Afro Latin American experience such as Blackness African religions and folkloric traditions and immigration While there is no firm consensus on the term Blackness scholars typically use the term to describe the social cultural and historical experience of Afro descendants in the diaspora The Afro Latin American bildungsromans examined in this study include a number of religions such as Catholicism Spiritism and syncretic folk religions as well as Santería and Umbanda reflecting the variety of beliefs in Latin America I have found that young people turn to religions and spiritual traditions in time of need Going on a journey as part of one's personal development is one of the central themes of many bildungsroman and this pertains too in Afro Latin American novels Caribbean characters are depicted as immigrating to the United States whereas few Brazilians have enough resources to travel to North America and instead move to larger cities within their own country
