The Cultural Construction of Monstrous Children Simon Bacon, Leo Ruickbie, 2020-09-30 The Cultural Construction of Monstrous Children raises important questions at the heart of society and culture and through an interdisciplinary trans cultural analysis presents important findings on socio cultural representations and embodiments of the child and childhood At the start of the 21st new anxieties constellate around the child and childhood while older concerns have re emerged mutated and grown stronger But as historical analysis shows they have been ever present concerns This innovative and interdisciplinary collection of essays considers examples of monstrous children since the 16th century to the present spanning real life and popular culture to exhibit the manifestation of the Western cultural anxiety around the problematic anomalous child as naughty dangerous or just plain evil The book takes an inter and multidisciplinary approach drawing upon fields as diverse as sociology psychology film and literature to study the role of the child and childhood within contemporary Western culture and to see the historic ways in which each discipline intersects and influences the other

Building Construction and Superintendence Frank Eugene Kidder,1909 The Construction of Space in Early China Mark Edward Lewis,2012-02-01 This book examines the formation of the Chinese empire through its reorganization and reinterpretation of its basic spatial units the human body the household the city the region and the world The central theme of the book is the way all these forms of ordered space were reshaped by the project of unification and how at the same time that unification was constrained and limited by the necessary survival of the units on which it was based Consequently as Mark Edward Lewis shows each level of spatial organization could achieve order and meaning only within an encompassing superior whole the body within the household the household within the lineage and state the city within the region and the region within the world empire while each level still contained within itself the smaller units from which it was formed The unity that was the empire s highest goal avoided collapse back into the original chaos of nondistinction only by preserving within itself the very divisions on the basis of family or region that it claimed to transcend

The Construction of Reformed Identity in Jean Crespin's Livre des Martyrs Jameson Tucker,2017-03-31 Between 1554 and 1570 the Genevan printer Jean Crespin compiled seven French language editions of his martyrology In The Construction of Reformed Identity in Jean Crespin s Livre des Martyrs Jameson Tucker explores how this martyrology helped to shape a distinct Reformed identity for its Protestant readership with a particular interest in the stranger groups that Crespin included within his Livre des Martyrs By comparing each edition of the Livre des Martyrs this book examines Crespin s editorial processes and considers the impact that he intended his work to have on his readers Through this it provides a window into the Reformed Church and its members during the outbreak of the French Wars of Religion This is the first volume to comparatively study all seven French language editions of Crespin s Livre des Martyrs and will be essential reading for all scholars of the Reformation and early modern France

Pindar and the Construction of Syracusan Monarchy in the Fifth Century B.C. Kathryn A. Morgan,2015 This book situates Pindar s victory odes for Hieron of Syracuse within the tumultuous context of Syracuse and Greece in the early fifth century BC It combines exploration of the material and musical culture of Hieron s Syracuse with literary analysis to demonstrate how Pindar s poetry manipulates epinician form to effect political legitimization

Reports of Cases Decided by the English Courts Nathaniel Cleveland Moak,1881 The Construction of Truth in Contemporary Media Narratives about Risk John Gaffey,2021-04-22 The Construction of Truth in Contemporary Media Narratives about Risk provides a theoretical framework for how in a post truth era media audiences are able to understand and navigate everyday risk The book examines media risk narratives and explores forms of truth experiential knowledge and authority Using the concept of parrhesia to show how we invest trust in various types of knowledge in a changing media environment the book demonstrates how we choose between expert and non expert information when navigating a seemingly risky world It considers how news media formats have previously engaged audiences through risk narratives and examines how experiential knowledge has come to hold a valuable place for individuals navigating what we are often told is an increasingly risky and uncertain world The book also examines the increasingly precarious position of expert knowledge and examines how contemporary truth games play out between experts and non experts and considers how this extends into the world of online and social media This book will be of interest to those researching or teaching in the areas of criminology sociology media and cultural studies and of interest to readers in professional areas such as journalism and politics
