Armies of Empire Allan Converse,2011-04-07 Armies of Empire uniquely reflects upon the experience of two divisions from different armies facing similar challenges in the Second World War The 9th Australian Division and the British 50th Northumbrian Division both saw long service and suffered heavy casualties and both encountered morale discipline and battlefield effectiveness problems In this illuminating comparative study of Australian and British divisions at war Allan Converse draws extensively on primary sources as well as recent scholarship on morale and combat efficiency His fresh approach questions the popular mythology surrounding the Australian Digger and the British Tommy and shows how it was a combination of leadership loyalty and tactics rather than intrinsic national qualities which resulted in victory for Churchill s armies

Godwin's Saga Kenneth Macksey,1987 In the Shadow of Munich. British Policy towards Czechoslovakia from 1938 to 1942 Vít Smetana,2008-01-01 The book In the Shadow of Munich British Policy towards Czechoslovakia from the Endorsement to the Renunciation of the Munich Agreement 1938 to 1942 analyses the varying attitudes and gradual change of British policy towards Czechoslovakia in the period from the Munich Conference in September 1938 to August 1942 when the British government proclaimed the Munich Agreement as dead and thus having no influence whatsoever on the future territorial settlement The key focus of this work lies in the influence of Munich upon the British political scene and upon the resulting British policy towards Czechoslovakia in the Central European context and also in the repercussions of Munich in negotiations with the Czechoslovak exile representatives The book is a result of many years of the author s research conducted primarily in the British and the Czech archives as well as his reflection of numerous documentary editions diaries memoirs and secondary sources It aims to dispel frequent myths and stereotypes that have so far influenced the Czech and partly also Anglo Saxon historiography in their interpretations of British attitudes towards Czechoslovakia immediately before and during the Second World War
