responsible Nor was it the King s fault that we lost our estates which my ancestors owned in the days of Charles V nor that we lost our fortune we Casa Trianas nor that my father was banished from Spain For the King was not born therefore he was not responsible so why should I blame him for anything that has happened to me It was perhaps ill judged to visit my father s land since to him it had been a land forbidden But a few months after his death when I was twenty one the longing to see Spain had become an obsession And it must have been my evil star which influenced an anarchist to throw a bomb at a royal personage on the very day I arrived at Barcelona thinly disguised under an English name My identity was discovered at once as the son of the great dead Carlist I was suspected and clapped into a cell to wait until my innocence could be proved This was not easy but on the other hand there was no proof against me and after an experience which scourged my pride and emptied my purse I was released only to be politely but firmly advised never again to show the undesirable face of a Casa Triana in Spain The Car of Destiny, Etc Charles Norris Williamson,Alice Muriel Williamson,1916 The Car of Destiny Alice Muriel Williamson Charles Norris Williamson,2021-09-09 Book Excerpt s of his enemies of yours might even say it was bad taste which is worse And then having come you proceed to follow the King s motor car you fall head over ears in love with a girl in it a friend of the bride elect to whom your real name if she s not heard it already could easily be made to seem anathema maranatha But that s not all You re here under a name not your own If you should by luck or ill luck get a chance to meet Lady Monica you couldn t be introduced to her as Christopher Trevenna it would be a false pretence still less could you throw your real name in her face for between the King of Spain as a friend and you as an acquaintance the girl would be in an uncomfortable position to say the least No my dear fellow you can t meet this young lady and the only thing for your peace of mind if you ve really fallen in love is to go away I had no arguments with which to meet Dick s I listened in silence but I made no preparation for departure If there was nothing to be Read More Destiny's Reason R.
