Creationists E.L. Doctorow, 2008-12-10 E L Doctorow is acclaimed internationally for such novels as Ragtime Billy Bathgate and The March Now here are Doctorow's rich revelatory essays on the nature of imaginative thought In Creationists Doctorow considers creativity in its many forms from the literary Melville and Mark Twain to the comic Harpo Marx to the cosmic Genesis and Einstein As he wrestles with the subjects that have teased and fired his own imagination Doctorow affirms the idea that we know by what we create Just what is Melville doing in Moby Dick And how did The Adventures of Tom Sawyer impel Mark Twain to radically rewrite what we know as Huckleberry Finn Can we ever trust what novelists say about their own work How could Franz Kafka have written a book called Amerika without ever leaving Europe In posing such questions Doctorow grapples with literary creation not as a critic or as a scholar but as one working writer frankly contemplating the work of another It's a perspective that affords him both protean grace and profound insight Among the essays collected here are Doctorow's musings on the very different Spanish Civil War novels of Ernest Hemingway and Andr Malraux a candid assessment of Edgar Allan Poe as our greatest bad writer a bracing analysis of the story of Genesis in which God figures as the most complex and riveting character Whether he is considering how Harpo Marx opened our eyes to surrealism the haunting photos with which the late German writer W G Sebald illustrated his texts or the innovations of such literary icons as Heinrich von Kleist Harriet Beecher Stowe and Sinclair Lewis Doctorow is unfailingly generous shrewd attentive surprising and precise In examining the creative works of different times and disciplines Doctorow also reveals the source and nature of his own artistry Rich in aphorism and anecdote steeped in history and psychology informed by a lifetime of reading and writing Creationists opens a magnificent window into one of the great creative minds of our time The Calendar University of Calcutta, 1927 Computers in Libraries ,2003
