Koivisto, 2009-01-01 One Lord One Faith is a plea and plan to re envision the Church as a broad cross denominational community with a shared faith in the Christ of the Gospel It both affirms the place and inevitability of individual denominational traditions and also provides a grid from which to distinguish those denominational traditions from the core of historical orthodoxy shared by the entire Christian community The book seeks to distinguish denominationalism from sectarianism and identifies sectarianism as the true enemy of historic catholicity The Transformation of the Christian Churches in Western Europe Leo Kenis, Patrick Pasture, 2010 KADOC Studies on Religion Culture and Society Volume 6 Research continues to show that the Christian religion is gradually disappearing from the public cultural and social spheres in Western Europe Even on the individual level institutionalized religion is becoming increasingly marginalized New forms of religious life and community however may point toward a resurgence of Christian churches in postmodern Europe This book focuses on the complex transformations Christian churches in Western Europe have undergone since World War II In English and French Faith in the City Angela Denise Dillard, 2009-12-11 The dynamics of Black Theology were at the center of the Long New Negro Renaissance triggered by mass migrations to industrial hubs like Detroit Finally this crucial subject has found its match in the brilliant scholarship of Angela Dillard No one has done a better job of tracing those religious roots through the civil rights black power era than Professor Dillard Komozi Woodard Professor of History Public Policy Africana Studies at Sarah Lawrence College and author of A Nation within a Nation Amiri Baraka LeRoi Jones and Black Power Politics Angela Dillard recovers the long submerged links between the black religious and political lefts in postwar Detroit Faith in the City is an essential contribution to the growing literature on the struggle for racial equality in the North Thomas J Sugrue University of Pennsylvania author of The Origins of the Urban Crisis Race and Inequality in Postwar Detroit Spanning more than three decades and organized around the biographies of Reverends Charles A Hill and Albert B Cleage Jr Faith in the City is a major new exploration of how the worlds of politics and faith merged for many of Detroit's African Americans a convergence that provided the community with a powerful new voice and identity While other religions have mixed politics and creed Faith in the City shows how this fusion was and continues to be particularly vital to African American clergy and the Black freedom struggle Activists in cities such as Detroit sustained a record of progressive politics over the course of three decades Angela Dillard reveals this generational link and describes what the activism of the 1960s owed to that of the 1930s The labor movement for example provided Detroit's Black activists both inside and outside the unions with organizational power and experience virtually unmatched by any other African American urban community Angela D Dillard is Associate Professor of Afroamerican and African Studies at the University of Michigan She specializes in American and African American intellectual history religious studies critical masterpieces he even used landscape not merely as a more or less picturesque decoration but as a sort of echo of that interior life and an element of a perfect harmony Relying on the still quite novel laws of perspective this doctor of scholastic wisdom who was at the same time an initiator of modern thought substituted for the discursive manner of the Primitives the principle of concentration which is the basis of classical art The picture is no longer presented to us as an almost fortuitous aggregate of details and episodes It is an organism in which all the elements lines and colours shadows and lights compose a subtle tracery converging on a spiritual a sensuous centre It was not with the external significance of objects but with their inward and spiritual significance that Leonardo was occupied
