The Banza A Haitian Story:

The Banza Diane Wolkstein,1981 Can a banza or little banjo save one small goat from a band of hungry tigers The Banza a Haitian Story Diane Wolkstein,1981-01-01 The little tiger Teegra gives Cabree a little goat a magic banjo that later protects her from the dangers of the jungle The Caribbean Story Finder Sharon Barcan Elswit,2017-09-11 The Caribbean islands have a vibrant oral folklore In Jamaica the clever spider Anansi who outsmarts stronger animals is a symbol of triumph by the weak over the powerful The fables of the foolish Juan Bobo who tries to bring milk home in a burlap bag illustrate facets of traditional Puerto Rican life Conflict over status identity and power is a recurring theme in a story from Trinidad a young bull raised by his mother in secret challenges his tyrannical father who has killed all the other males in the herd One in a series of folklore reference guides by the author this volume shares summaries of 438 tales some in danger of disappearing retold in English and Creole from West African European and slave indigenous cultures in 24 countries and territories Tales are grouped in themed sections with a detailed subject index and extensive links to online sources The Banza. (Reading Rainbow, 15.) Diane Wolkstein,1981 A small goat finds that the banjo given to her by a little tiger protects her from harm in an unexpected way Freedom's Plow Jim Fraser,Theresa Perry,2013-10-15 Freedom s Plow is the first volume designed to provide teachers and teachers in training with the practical resources they need to make their teaching practice and classrooms more multicultural Parts II and III present the voices and experiences of teachers from first grade to college level who are actually engaged in multicultural teaching efforts The contributors examine what redefining their practice as multicultural has meant for their work in terms of content pedagogy power and indeed their own attitudes and values The volume concludes by focusing on the power arrangements perspectives and personnel policies needed if schools are to emerge as truly multicultural multiethnic democracies Storytelling Strategies for Reaching and Teaching Children with Special Needs Sherry Norfolk,Lyn Ford,2017-11-21 This book supplies stories essays lesson plans and specialized storytelling strategies to help teachers level the playing field for all learners and better serve children with special needs More than 57 percent of the over 6 million American children with disabilities are in inclusive i e general classrooms self contained classrooms serve children whose disabilities are either more severe or disruptive As much as 20 percent of the children in an inclusive classroom are identified as disabled with the highest percentage of these having learning disabilities While most classrooms have at least one child with a disability teachers often have little or no training in educating and caring for these children The need for resources that support educators working with children with disabilities or social emotional difficulties is clear This book fills this critical need supplying school and public librarians classroom and special area teachers and storytelling teaching artists with storytelling strategies for reaching and teaching children with special needs in inclusive classrooms self contained classrooms and public and school libraries These full text stories essays and lesson plans from experienced storytelling teaching artists provide educators with a wide range of adaptable storytelling and teaching strategies for specific disabilities and enable storytellers to discover new ways to perform their storytelling magic. The book also offers compelling real life anecdotes that demonstrate the impact of these strategies in inclusive and self-contained classrooms. It presents an introduction to the skills of storytelling, why they are useful, and how to use them, and includes suggested modifications for a wide range of disabilities as well as detailed resource lists.

The Storytellers' Journey Joseph Daniel Sobol, 1999. This is the seed of The Storytellers Journey. Joseph Daniel Sobol's history of the past thirty years of American storytelling. In this compelling examination of the contemporary search for myth, Sobol explores the social and psychological roots of the storytelling revival and the ever resurgent power of the storyteller. Drawing on interviews with dozens of storytellers around the country, Sobol paints the revival as part of a larger process of cultural revitalization. He traces the growth of the preeminent revival organization, the National Association for the Preservation and Perpetuation of Storytelling (NAPPS), and details the individual passions, the organizational politics, and the economic, social, and mythic forces that have combined to transform a ragtag assemblage of enthusiasts into a national and international network of arts professionals. A seemingly chance encounter between a restlessly ambitious high school teacher and a coonhunting tale on the car radio sets off a chain of inspirations that changes the face of a small southern town, touches lives across America, and revitalizes a homely but treasured art form.

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2008-10-26. This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity-based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers. Based in practice and experience, it offers systematic support and open, honest advice for new teachers. It is conversational, not pedantic, and provides lots of examples. While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before, this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter, especially designed to help new teachers address learning standards, to work in inclusive settings, and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms. It puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why, includes new essays on the politics of social studies education, responds to opponents of project or activity-based social studies instruction, and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book. Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre-service social studies methods courses, this text is also useful for in-service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice.
