O'Sullivan,2005-01-01

Texts centred on the mother of Jesus abound in religious traditions the world over but thirteenth century Old French lyric stands apart both because of the enormous size of the Marian cult in thirteenth century France and the lack of critical attention the genre has garnered from scholars As hybrid texts Old French Marian songs combine motifs from several genres and registers to articulate a devotional message In this comprehensive and illuminating study Daniel E O Sullivan examines the movement between secular and religious traditions in medieval culture that Old French religious song embodies He demonstrates that Marian lyric was far more than a simple mindless imitation of secular love song On the contrary Marian lyric participated in a dynamic interplay with the secular tradition that different composers shaped and reshaped in light of particular doctrinal and aesthetic concerns It is a corpus that reveals itself to be far more malleable and supple than past readers have admitted With an extensive index of musical and textual editions of dozens of songs Marian Devotion in Thirteenth Century French Lyric brings a heretofore neglected genre to light History of

Essays on women and devotional literature in the Middle Ages in commemoration and celebration of the respected feminist scholar Catherine Innes Parker Silence was a much lauded concept in the Middle Ages particularly in the context of religious literature directed at women Based on the Pauline prescription that women should neither preach nor teach and should at all times keep speech to a minimum the concept of silence lay at the forefront of many devotional texts particularly those associated with various forms of women's religious enclosure Following the example of the Virgin Mary religious women were exhorted to speak seldom and then only seriously and devoutly However as this volume shows such gendered exhortations to silence were often more rhetorical than literal The contributions range widely they consider the English Wooming Group texts and female authored visionary writings from the Saxon nunnery of Helfta in the thirteenth century works by Richard Rolle and the Dutch mystic Jan van Ruusbroec in the fourteenth century Anglo French treatises and books housed in the library of the English noblewoman Cecily Neville in the fifteenth century and the resonant poetics of women from non Christian cultures But all demonstrate the ways in which silence rather than being a mere absence of speech frequently comprised a form of gendered articulation and proto feminist point of resistance They thus provide an apt commemoration and celebration of the deeply innovative work of Catherine Innes Parker 1956 2019 the respected feminist scholar and a pioneer of this important field of study     A Devotion to Purity Sandra Soraya, 2024-07-25 Seth Roderick and Larry Gage the future Beta and Gamma of the Northernland Kingdom have a big problem As the Beta and Gamma they must follow orders that their future Alpha King gives They have pledged their allegiance to the future king so defying orders will be a crime Punishable by death Future Alpha King Steele North has a grudge that must be avenged His brother Alpha Prince Damon North died in the land of the enemy Unfortunately their enemy the Wolferaine Kingdom is stronger Declaring a war against the Wolferaine is not only moronic it's also suicidal They will not win unless the Wolferaine is the one that declares war But the future king is determined It must be done one way or another Along comes Daisy Chester a ravishing beauty who happens to be the sister in law to the Wolferaine King Now their plan can come to fruition Alpha Steele North orders his Beta and Gamma to abduct and kill the sweet angel The action will enrage the Wolferaine King enough to make the Wolferaine attack the Northernland The plan is perfect Except for one thing Daisy Chester is Gamma Larry Gage's fated mate     A Guide to Family Devotion Alexander Fletcher, 1800
