Griselda Pollock and Jessica Sjolholm Skrubbe The Power of Looks Bonnie Berry, 2016-02-24 There is a saying that beauty is in the eye of the beholder implying that beauty is subjective But can it be said that better looking people have more social power This book provides a fascinating insight into the social stratification of people based on looks the artificial placement of people into greater and lesser power strata based on physical appearance The author analyzes different aspects of physical appearance such as faces breasts eye shapes height and weight as they are related to social power and inequality For example tall people are often associated with power with tall people being seen publicly as more capable and thus more deserving of power than shorter people The author moreover assesses how people's physical appearance affects their chances of marriage employment education and other social and economic opportunities The book contributes to and differentiates itself from current literature by emphasizing sociological theory including constructionism and critical theory and research to understand the phenomenon of social aesthetics a term coined by the author to refer to the social reaction to physical appearance

Feminism Reframed Alexandra M. Kokoli, 2009-10-02 Feminism Reframed Reflections on Art and Difference addresses the ongoing dialogue between feminism art history and visual culture from contemporary scholarly perspectives Over the past thirty years the critical interventions of feminist art historians in the academy the press and the art world have not only politicised and transformed the themes methods and conceptual tools of art history but have also contributed to the emergence of new interdisciplinary areas of investigation including notably that of visual culture Although the impact of such fruitful transformations is indisputable their exact contribution to contemporary scholarship remains a matter for debate not least because feminism itself has changed significantly since the Women's Liberation Movement Feminism Reframed reviews and revises existing feminist art histories but also reasserts the need for continuous feminist interventions in the academy the art world and beyond With contributions by Anthea Behm Alisia Grace Chase Jennifer G. Germann Catherine Grant Joanne Heath Ruth Hemus Alexandra Kokoli Beth Anne Lauritis Griselda Pollock Karen Roulstone Anne Swartz and Sue Tate Coming at the moment when contemporary art practices are themselves involved in re-cycling re-evaluating and re-enacting the past this collection asks how feminism's own troubled histories can be reframed productively in the present The questions that feminism raised in the 1970s and 80s are still pertinent and are addressed in a number of original essays What does gender equality mean in the arts How can women's subjectivities be articulated or performed differently in art practices Can attention to gender enable us to engage with complex differences of race sexuality and class of age and generation Do we need new interpretative and conceptual models for writing about art Alexandra Kokoli's thoughtful and illuminating introduction reminds us that reframing is a risky but exciting business if it makes us ask these questions anew with attention to the politics and aesthetics of the present Rosemary Betterton Lancaster University

Electrochemical and Metallurgical Industry ,1949 Air University Review ,1984 Girls, Autobiography, Media Emma Maguire, 2018-04-05 This book investigates how girls automediate selves are constituted and consumed as literary or media products in a digital landscape dominated by intimate though quite public modes of self disclosure and pervaded by broader practices of self branding In thinking about how girlhood as a potentially vulnerable subject position circulates as a commodity Girls Autobiography Media argues that by using digital technologies to write themselves into culture girls and young women are staking a claim on public space and asserting the right to create and distribute their own representations of girlhood Their texts in the form of blogs vlogs photo sharing platforms online diaries and fangirl identities show how they navigate the sometimes hostile conditions of online spaces in order to become narrators of their own lives and stories By examining case studies across different digital forms of self presentation by girls and young women this book considers how mediation and autobiographical practices are deeply interlinked and it highlights the significant contribution girls and young women have made to contemporary digital forms of life narrative

George Schuyler a renowned and controversial black journalist of the Harlem Renaissance and Josephine Cogdell a blond blue eyed Texas heiress and granddaughter of slave owners believed that intermarriage would invigorate the races thereby producing extraordinary offspring Their daughter Philippa Duke Schuyler became the embodiment of this theory and they hoped she would prove that interracial children represented the final solution to America s race problems Able to read and write at the age of two and a half a pianist at four and a composer by five Philippa was often compared to Mozart During the 1930s and 40s she graced the pages of Time and Look magazines the New York Herald Tribune and The New Yorker Philippa grew up under the adoring and inquisitive eyes of an entire nation and soon became the role model and inspiration for a generation of African American children But as an adult she mysteriously dropped out of sight leaving America to wonder what had happened to the little Harlem genius Suffering the double sting of racism and gender bias Philippa had been rejected by the elite classical music milieu in the United States and forced to find an audience abroad where she flourished as a world class performer and composer She traveled throughout South America Europe Africa and Asia performing for kings queens and presidents By then Philippa had added a second career as an author and foreign correspondent reporting on events around the globe from Albert Schweitzer s leper colony in Lambaré to the turbulent Asian theater of the 1960s She would give a command performance for Queen Elisabeth of Belgium one day and hide from the Viet Cong among the ancient graves of the Annam kings another But behind the scrim of adventure glamour and intrigue was an American outcast a woman constantly searching for home and self I am a beauty but I m half colored so I m always destined to be an outsider she wrote in her diary Philippa tried to define herself through love affairs but found only disappointment and scandal In a last attempt to reclaim an identity she began to pass as Caucasian Adopting an Iberian American heritage she reinvented herself as Felipa Monterro an ultra right conservative who wrote and lectured for the John Birch Society Her experiment failed as had her parents dream of smashing America s racial barriers But at the age of thirty five Philippa finally began to embark on a racial catharsis She was just beginning to find herself when on May 9 1967 while on an unauthorized mission of mercy her life was cut short in a helicopter crash over the waters of war torn Vietnam The first authorized biography of Philippa Schuyler Composition in Black and White draws on previously unpublished letters and diaries to reveal an extraordinary and complex personality Extensive research and personal interviews from around the world make this book not only the definitive chronicle of Schuyler s restless and haunting life but also a vivid history of the tumultuous times she lived through from the Great Depression through the Civil Rights movement to the Vietnam war Talalay has created a highly perceptive and provocative portrait of a fascinating woman Death in Life Robert Jay Lifton, 2012-01-01 In Japan hibakusha means the people affected by the explosion specifically the explosion of the atomic bomb in Hiroshima in 1945 In this classic study winner of the 1969 National Book Award in Science Lifton studies the psychological effects of the bomb on 90 000 survivors He sees this analysis as providing a last chance to understand and be motivated to avoid nuclear war This compassionate treatment is a significant contribution to the atomic age All Hands ,1962 Arguing Over the American Lake Hal M.
