The Black Directive N.D. Mellen, 2015-01-09 Im no hero no matter what people say After all you cant be a hero if you despise those that youre protecting The way that I look at it what I am is a matter of circumstance I gave up dresses and skirts the day I watched my parents die I was eight years old and was mauled and scarred by the creature that killed them If it hadnt been for the intervention of a half insane blacksmith I would have perished beside them I survived but was infected by the Blackness My face was tattooed when I was sixteen to hide my scars and I started training under the brutal tutelage of one of the most skilled killers to ever walk the Outer Rims shortly thereafter He battered me for years teaching me how to kill as quickly and efficiently as possible Not people mind you No we trained to kill Ferals the white skinned black eyed monsters that killed my parents and so many others There are still a few who object to what my pack and I do They think that since Ferals used to be human we owe them some sort of sympathy I dont think that deeply into it I just kill them and when the Blackness is roaring through me and I have my spear in my hand Im really good at it I know all the old wives tales about princes and princesses everyone has a happily ever after But this is my story and theres nothing happy or beautiful about it You can call me Maqui and its an understatement to say that I have staggering anger issues Playthings in Early

Modernity Allison Levy, 2017-02-22 An innovative volume of fifteen interdisciplinary essays at the nexus of material culture performance studies and game theory Playthings in Early Modernity emphasizes the rules of the game s as well as the breaking of those rules Thus the titular plaything is understood as both an object and a person and play in the early modern world is treated not merely as a pastime a leisurely pursuit but as a pivotal part of daily life a strategic psychosocial endeavor

A Traditionalist History of the Great War, Book III Alexander Wolfheze, 2025-03-13 This third volume of the series A Traditionalist History of the Great War provides an in depth reassessment of the events leading up to the outbreak of the First World War It views the systemic failure of Great Power diplomacy as the result of an increasing existential incompatibility and growing power imbalance between the Modernity aligned Triple Entente and the Tradition aligned Germanic empires The final breakdown of international diplomacy in 1914 was preceded by major crises and peripheral wars that shaped not only the alignment of the Great Powers but also the mindset of their leaders who found themselves facing historical forces beyond their control This book reconstructs the crises and wars of the pre war years as well as the military calculations of July 1914 showing how they are consistent with an overall geopolitical trajectory that inexorably led to the final show down between the forces of rising Modernity and waning Tradition No Shelter But the Stars Virginia
