Toronto Catholic District School Board Board Learning:

Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice Susan E. Elliott-Johns, Daniel H. Jarvis, 2013-01-01 Perspectives on Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice examines student transitions between major levels of schooling teacher transitions in instructional practice and the intersection of these two significant themes in education research Twenty six leading international experts offer meaningful insights on current pedagogical practices obstacles to effective transitions and proven strategies for stakeholders involved in supporting students in transition The book is divided into four sections representing the four main transitions in formal schooling Early Years Home Pre school and Kindergarten to Early Elementary Grades 1 3 Early Elementary to Late Elementary Grades 4 8 Late Elementary to Secondary Grades 9 12 and Secondary to Post Secondary College and University A coda draws together over arching themes from throughout the text to provide recommendations and a visual model that captures their interactions Combining theoretical approaches with practical examples of school based initiatives this book will appeal to those involved in supporting either the student experience both academically and emotionally or teacher professional learning and growth Case Studies in Global School Health Promotion Cheryl Vince Whitman, Carmen E. Aldinger, 2009-04-29 A growing body of research identifies strong links between children's health social and educational outcomes it also notes the reciprocal benefits of access to quality education on individual and family health status In response to these findings the World Health Organization developed the concept of the Health Promoting School HPS a living catalyst for healthy lives and for positive changes that students can take home and into the community Case Studies in Global School Health Promotion provides readers with a theoretical and research base needed to understand the methods used in communities all over the world to put this captivating concept in place Case examples from over two dozen countries representing urban and rural areas in developing and developed nations outline the strategies taken to implement HPS programs in individual schools municipalities and nations For each program case study authors explain the problems they tackled their motivation and supports to respond creatively and the barriers they faced In the cases authors describe the capacities and infrastructure they created and mechanisms for cooperation as well as the personnel financial and time requirements involved Case studies were drawn from the following regions Africa The Americas Europe Eastern Mediterranean South and Southeast Asia Western Pacific Case Studies in Global School Health Promotion offers a world of insights ideas and guidance to those addressing social determinants of health at this formative stage including education and health policy makers professionals and administrators and researchers in national governments universities local schools community non governmental organizations and civil society The material provides interesting anduseful information to those dedicated to these issues within WHO FRESH Partners and other United Nations agencies It is also an instructive text for graduate students in public health education allied health professions and social sciences Creative Dimensions of Teaching and Learning in the 21st Century Jill B. Cummings, Mary L. Curriculum, Teaching and Learning Today Karma M. Chukdong, 2017-03-25 This text looks carefully at the sociological historical and economic sides of our education systems today Since education is ultimately linked to whose knowledge counts we are also forced to look at the world of Policy studies Policy studies itself should fo cus on diverse methodologies that guarantee authentic policy development In this way our society can automatically recognize when certain policies are a mere placebo This diagnosis of policy placebo is a pattern that we can see over and over and we should be come more aware Policy placebo is when policy is created to make it look like an issue was trying to be resolved or it attempted to solve an issue but the intention was never an altruistic one Then there are some policies that may have good intentions but caused more harm than good Physical and Health Education in Canada Barrett, Joe, Scaini, Carol, 2019 Physical and Health Education in Canada Integrated Strategies for Elementary Teachers is a compendium of integrated evidence based approaches to physical and health education teaching from leading physical and health educators and researchers from across Canada Practices for Supporting English Learners Fern Westernoff, Stephaney Jones-Vo, Paula Markus, 2021-02-23 Highlight the assets of English Learners in your classroom Students do better in school when their voices are heard For English Learners that means not only supporting their growing language proficiency but also empowering them to share their linguistic and cultural identities This practical guide grounded in compelling research and organized around essential guestions and answers is designed to help all educators build on their current competencies to authentically harmonize home languages and cultures in the classroom Inside you ll find The emotional social linguistic cognitive and academic rationale for incorporating cultural and linguistic assets Creatively illustrated powerful practices with concrete examples of successful implementation Myth busting reflections to spark critical thinking about diversity inclusive education and family engagement Curriculum connections tied to American and Canadian standards By recognizing and validating every student's linguistic and cultural assets you create a supportive environment for academic success Online Teaching and Learning in Higher Education during COVID-19 Roy Chan, Krishna Bista, Ryan Allen, 2021-08-12 This timely volume documents the immediate global impacts of the coronavirus pandemic COVID 19 on teaching and learning in higher education Focusing on student and faculty experiences of online and distance education the text provides reflections on novel initiatives unexpected challenges and lessons learned Responding to the urgent need to better understand online teaching and learning during the COVID 19 pandemic this book investigates how the use of information and communication technologies ICT impacted students faculty and staff experiences during the COVID 19 lockdown Chapters initially look at the challenges faced by universities and educators in their attempts to overcome the practical difficulties involved in developing effective online programming and pedagogy The text then builds on these insights to highlight student experiences and consider issues of social connection and inequality Finally the volume looks forward to asking what lessons COVID 19 can offer for the future development of online and distance learning in higher education This engaging volume will benefit researchers academics and educators with an interest in online teaching and eLearning curriculum design and more specifically those involved with the digitalization of higher education The text will also support further discussion and reflection around pedagogical transformation international teaching and learning and educational policy more broadly Faith-based Identity and Curriculum in Catholic Schools Jim Gleeson, Peta Goldburg, 2019-11-25 Faith based Identity and Curriculum in Catholic Schools examines the relationship between faith based education and whole curriculum at a time when neoliberal ideologies and market values are having a disproportionate influence on national education policies Topics addressed include current challenges and dilemmas faced by Catholic Education leadership Catholic social teaching and its implications for whole curriculum the opinions of teachers in Queensland Catholic schools regarding faith based school identity with particular reference to whole curriculum an associated comparison of these opinions teachers with those of their USA peers school identity and Catholic social teaching in Ontario Catholic schools an action research approach to the integration of Catholic social teaching in Queensland Catholic schools longitudinal study of the views of pre service teachers at a Catholic university regarding the purposes and characteristics of Catholic schools Bringing together professionals and academics from across the world Faith based Identity and Curriculum in Catholic Schools will inspire Catholic and other faith based educators to appreciate the importance and potential of the integration of faith based perspectives such as countercultural Catholic social teaching across the school curriculum in an educationally appropriate manner Youth, School, and Community Naomi Nichols, 2019-11-04 This book examines how young people s experiences of inclusion and exclusion are shaped by extended social relations coordinating thought and conduct across time and space Working with young people and using a range of participatory institutional ethnographic strategies Naomi Nichols investigates the social and institutional relations which differentially punctuate the lives of youth While the research begins with what young people know and have experienced this starting place anchors a deeper investigation of the public sector institutions and institutional processes that remain implicated in social historical economic processes of global capitalism imperialism and colonialism Youth School and Community connects the dots between on the one hand the abstract objectified accounts produced by institutions and enabling institutional action and accounting practices and on the other hand the actual material conditions of young people's lives and development which these accounts obscure The focus on specific policies and procedures that produce young people s experiences of racialized inclusion exclusion and safety risk make this book particularly useful to academics professionals and activists who want to ensure that young people experience equitable access to public sector resources and not disproportionate exposure to public sector punishments and punitive interventions Making a Difference in Urban Schools Jane Gaskell, Benjamin Levin, 2012-08-08 What can be done to improve the educational experiences of students who live in cities with increasingly high levels of diversity and inequality Making a Difference in Urban Schools evaluates how school and community leaders have worked to change urban education in Canada for the better over the past fifty years This analytic and comparative study traces the evolution of urban education in Toronto and Winnipeg from the 1960s onward Jane Gaskell and Ben Levin identify important contrasts between the experiences in each city as a result of their different demographics institutional structures cultures and politics They also highlight the common issues and dilemmas faced by reformers in these two cities across Canada and globally including many that persist and remain controversial to this day Consultation and Mental Health Interventions in School Settings Ester Cole, Maria Kokai, 2021-11-30 Optimize the delivery of school psychology services with this book Presents a unique consultation and intervention model Interlinks primary secondary and tertiary prevention and intervention applications Addresses specific student and school level needs Online resources and handouts More about the book This volume written by leading psychology practitioners and academics has been designed to meet the ever growing challenges faced by educational systems to address the mental health learning and socialization needs of students Using a unique and comprehensive consultation and intervention model the chapters provide evidence based guidance that interlinks primary secondary and tertiary prevention and intervention applications that allow for systematic consultation planning and cost effective services. The clear and easy to apply model is used to look at specific student needs that are commonly encountered in schools e g depression ADHD giftedness and at issues that require school level interventions e g diversity promoting resilience Practitioners will appreciate the numerous downloadable practical resources and tools for hands on applications that are available online to purchasers of the book This book is an invaluable resource for school psychologists and mental health service providers as well as for academics involved in training pre service practitioners The materials for this book can be downloaded from the Hogrefe website after registration Gender in Policy and Practice Amanda Datnow, Lea Hubbard, 2013-10-23 This book exposes the complexity of single sex schooling and sheds new light on how gender operates in policy and practice in education The essays collected in this volume cover a wide range of institutions including K 12 and higher education public and private schools and schools in the US and beyond Detailing the educational experiences of both young men and women this collection examines how schooling shapes and is shaped by the social construction of gender in history and in contemporary society The Ethnic Penalty Reza Hasmath, 2016-03-23 Populations of visible ethnic minorities have steadily increased over the past few decades in immigrant receptive societies While a complex calculus of push and pull factors has motivated this increase one of the main impetuses for this migration has been the search for employment better wages and a higher standard of living It is therefore not surprising that the educational attainments of the first generation and beyond have achieved convergence with or exceeded the non ethnic minority cohort These outcomes may suggest a greater propensity for visible ethnic minorities to attain labour market success and to fully integrate within the community However the narrative derived from statistical analysis interviews and participant observation suggest an uneasiness boldly to claim this as the most convincing conclusion at this juncture The Ethnic Penalty argues that a penalty has impeded the occupational success of ethnic minorities during the job search hiring and promotion process As a result ethnic minorities have a lower income higher unemployment and a general failure to convert their high educational attainments into comparable occupational outcomes In this context the book examines whether explanatory factors such as discrimination an individual s social network a firm s working culture and a community s social trust are major contributing reasons behind this apparent penalty whilst also making suggestions for improving the integration education delivery and labour market outcomes of visible ethnic minorities Empowering Students and Elevating Universities With Innovation Centers Cantafio, Giuseppe, Munna, Afzal Sayed, 2024-04-16 As educational institutions strive to prepare students for an unpredictable future traditional models of teaching and learning face obsolescence The digital age demands a large shift in educational approaches necessitating creative solutions to equip students with the skills required to navigate an era defined by rapid technological advancements and societal complexities It is within this context that Empowering Students and Elevating Universities With Innovation Centers unfolds offering a detailed exploration into the pivotal role of innovation centers in reshaping the educational narrative The educational crisis is further exacerbated by the disconnect between academic learning and the demands of the real world As universities grapple with bridging this gap innovation centers provide a transformative space where students can bridge theory with practical application This book contends that the establishment of innovation centers is not just a strategic choice but a necessary response to the evolving needs of a globalized society Through a critical lens it scrutinizes the contemporary challenges faced by universities and argues that the integration of innovation centers is not a luxury but a necessity for institutions to remain relevant competitive and responsive to the demands of the 21st century Teaching Tough Topics Larry Swartz, 2020-01-15 Teaching Tough Topics shows teachers how to lead students to become caring citizens as they read and respond to quality children's literature It focuses on topics that can be challenging or sensitive yet are significant in order to build understanding of social justice diversity and equity Racism Homophobia Bullying Religious Intolerance Poverty and Physical and Mental Challenges are just some of the themes explored The book is rooted in the belief that by using picture books novels poetry and nonfiction teachers can enrich learning with compassion and empathy as students make connections to texts to others and to the world
