Internationalization in Higher Education and Research Lars Engwall, 2024-01-01. This book examines the pros and cons of the internationalization of higher education institutions, which is an important feature of modern universities. It makes a significant contribution to our understanding of universities and an important input to the assessment of the internationalization of higher education institutions both for regulators and for the universities themselves. The book's three parts focus on a number of issues associated with internationalization. The first part, Perspectives on Internationalization, provides critical reflections on internationalization on the globally distributed European American university and on the impact of rankings. The second part, The Obstacles to Internationalization, deals with the significance of language challenges of mobility and environment concerns. The third part, Alternative Modes of Internationalization, discusses internationalization at home, international distance education, and the establishment of international branch campuses.

Higher Education in Africa Damtew Teferra, Jane Knight, 2008. The first of its kind, this book documents and analyzes the international dimension of higher education in Africa based on country case studies and a consideration of relevant historical and contemporary themes. It identifies trends, developments, and challenges related to the international dimension of higher education at the institutional, national, and regional levels. It explores the institutional opportunities and probes the risks while it responds to the growing need for information and analysis of internationalization of higher education in Africa. On the basis of this book project, an effort is underway to establish the African Network for Internationalization of Education (ANIE). This network aims to develop research capacity and expertise to meet the professional and practical needs of individuals, institutions, and organizations interested in the international dimension of higher education in Africa.

OECD Economic Surveys: South Africa 2022 OECD, 2022-08-25. The COVID-19 crisis has weakened an already fragile economy. South Africa's growth underperformed during the past decade. GDP per capita was already lower in 2019 than in 2008. Unemployment remains high at around 35% and youth unemployment even exceeds 50%. In the meantime, spending pressures are mounting to close the financing gap in health infrastructure and higher education.
