AIMING FOR THE STARS Dr Sphumelele Ndlovu, 2018-07-13 AIMING FOR THE STARS is a memoir of Dr Sphumelele Ndlovu and his life of hardship which led him to becoming a Scientist His mother sold chickens to provide for her children never considering himself worse off than others The family was poor Sphumelele s life was also derailed when strikes caused 24 out of the 28 teachers at his school to abandon their posts in his matric year Education was Ndlovu s ticket to a better future and he knew at a young age that he wasn t going to give it up without a fight Ndlovu s PhD placed him to be part of a team of scientists set out to measure the distance between the Earth and Moon using lasers It is the sixth ever such venture but the first to be carried out by an African team A man whose horizon was once confined to the perimeter of a chicken coop now handled tools that allowed his eyes to glide over galaxies

Coloniality and the Governance of Education in West Africa Eva Bulgrin, 2025-07-10 This book explores the agenda setting and mediation of the education decentralisation policy in Benin as a postcolonial francophone context in West Africa As such it throws into sharp relief how far education decentralisation as a global governance reform informs policy and practice The research draws on qualitative data with more than 80 research participants including semi structured interviews with high and middle ranking officials from the Education Decentralisation and Planning Ministries as well head teachers teachers parents and members of teacher unions in Benin Bulgrin shows how decentralisation remains core tool of international organisations for promoting democracy good governance and economic development and how its advocates view it as a requirement for achieving the United Nation s Sustainable Development Goals The book draws on decolonial and postcolonial theories and concepts raised by Afican scholars such as Adesina Mbembe and Mkandwire as well as Ball s policy development framework and critical discourse analysis It contributes to wider debates on education policy governance and decentralisation across the Global South The book includes a preface by Abdel Rahamane Baba Moussa General Secretary of the Conference of Ministers of Education of French speaking States and Governments Maurice Athindehou Director of the previous Decentralisation Department of the Beninese Ministry for Pre and Primary Education and Yusuf Sayed Professor of Education at the University of Cambridge UK

Belonging Ashwin Desai,Goolam Vahed,2025-09-23 What does it mean to belong Across oceans and centuries this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860 Thousands were to follow In haunting detail the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever present threat of repatriation Sensitive to shifting political terrains the book weaves together seismic events the independence of India the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions with the texture of everyday life The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots Yet out of this despair barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope In the final chapters the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to
