

Welcoming our new Pastor!

On July 1st, Fr. John Rathinam will become the second pastor in the history of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church. Originally from India, Fr. John came to the United States in 2016. He has successfully pastored two communities, St. Pius X Church in O'Donnell and St. Jude Church in Tahoka. His parishioners, who have grown to love him, will miss him.

Fr. John was ordained a priest on May 2nd, 1997, and is a member of the Indian Missionary Society, a community of priests serving in various countries worldwide. Initially, Fr. John thought he might be sent to England, but God had other plans in mind. Instead, he was sent to Texas!

In addition to his pastoral experience, Fr. John also taught courses in theology in the seminary in India for 12 years. Since coming to the Diocese, he has served as Dean of the Brownfield Deanery and as a member of the Diocesan Presbyteral Council. Fr. John's first weekend with us will be at the beginning of July. Please welcome our new pastor with open arms and pray that the Lord will continue to grant him good health, happiness, and peace!
