Report of the Local Finance Enquiry Committee India. Local Finance Enquiry Committee,1951 India-Bangladesh Border Disputes Amit Ranjan,2018-10-30 This book discusses history of mental construction of the border between India and Bangladesh It investigates how and when a border was constructed between the people and discusses how the mental construction preceded the physical construction It also examines the perils faced by those forced to leave their homes as a result of the partition of India in 1947 Globally throughout history the absence of borders made the movement of people from one place to another easier The construction of borders and sovereign de limitation of territory restricted or even prevented seamless migration The situation becomes more complex near borders that were previously open to the movement of people One such border is between India and Bangladesh where in August 1947 suddenly people were told that the places they used to visit on a daily basis were now a part of a different sovereign country This book argues that borders construct the identity of an individual or a group Those who cross to the other side of border for whatever reason are identified and categorized by the state and the people Sometimes these migrants face violence from the locals because they are considered a threat to the local working class The book also explains how after the liberation of Bangladesh in 1971 everyday encounter between people from India and Bangladesh have further embedded a feeling of us versus them In 2015 India and Bangladesh agreed to implement the India Bangladesh Land Boundary Agreement LBA This book assesses whether the implementation of this agreement will have impacts on border related problems like mobility migration and tensions It is a valuable resource for policymakers journalists researchers and students

Towards a Ceasefire in Kashmir Lionel Carter, 2018-04-09 The central theme of this volume is deteriorating India Pakistan relations It opens in the aftermath of the Indian takeover of Hyderabad This had been accomplished so rapidly that there was a widespread feeling in Pakistan that their country would be next to attract the attention of the Indian Army Matters were worsened by the exodus of more than a million disaffected Hindus from East Pakistan to India Belligerent speeches were made by both sides and Nehru told the British High Commissioner Archibald Nye on 20 November 1948 that the situation in East Bengal was causing him far more anxiety than that in Kashmir However it was Kashmir which remained the major cause of tension After a period of relative stalemate there was movement from mid November and a real possibility of the extension of the fighting into West Punjab Fortunately wiser counsels were to prevail and the volume gives clues as to why a cease fire was agreed extremely rapidly at the end of December This took effect at midnight on 1 January 1949 There were now grounds for hope that relations between the two Dominions would greatly improve although Nye felt that because of likely problems with a plebiscite in many respects our Kashmir troubles were only about to start But he trusted that these would not be accompanied by bloodshed The volume contains 376 documents with Appendices and includes extracts from the monthly appreciations on the general situation which both High Commissioners sent to London Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
