Fabricating Consumers Andrew Gordon,2012 Since its early days of mass production in the 1850s the sewing machine has been intricately connected with the global development of capitalism Andrew Gordon traces the machine s remarkable journey into and throughout Japan where it not only transformed manners of dress but also helped change patterns of daily life class structure and the role of women As he explores the selling buying and use of the sewing machine in the early to mid twentieth century Gordon finds that its history is a lens through which we can examine the modern transformation of daily life in Japan Both as a tool of production and as an object of consumer desire the sewing machine is entwined with the emergence and ascendance of the middle class of the female consumer and of the professional home manager as defining elements of Japanese modernity Western Construction ,1967 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1993 PC Mag ,1992-12-08 PCMag com is a leading authority on technology delivering Labs based independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology Flying Magazine ,1947-08 Handbook of Sampling Methods for Arthropods in Agriculture Larry P. Pedigo,G. David Buntin,2020-08-26 Handbook of Sampling Methods for Arthropods in Agriculture offers a comprehensive look at the principles and practicality of developing accurate sampling programs for arthropod pests and their arthropod enemies The book examines developments in sampling populations and reviews sampling plans that produce accurate and affordable population estimates The text stresses practicality as well as the theoretical background of sampling This book will be an indispensable reference for researchers students and practitioners in entomology and agriculture Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1995
