What A Life A Memoir:

What a Life! Pesach'ke Burstein, 2003-04-01 Pesach Bursrein an old troupier from the Yiddish theater recalls dramas both onstage and off in this memoir which he dictated to his wife Lillian Lux Burstein The Story of Burstein's successful stage career is played out against the background of political turmoil in Europe vignettes of life in small towns and big cities friendships and rivalries among theater folk family life emigration to the United States and tours through Europe South America Israel and South Africa Every personal anecdote tells the larger history theater history and also the history of the Yiddish communities who were his audiences While Burstein is a legend in Yiddish theater he was little known outside that world until he was celebrated in Arnon Goldfinger's acclaimed documentary Der Komediant This memoir provides the first window for English readers into the other side of Yiddish culture the Yiddish burlesque the traveling Yiddish theater and the music hall It will not only delight readers but also reveal a social and cultural history never before described in such detail Burstein's life is the story of popular Yiddish theater in the first half of the century Memoir Ethics Mike W. Martin, 2016-02-10 Memoir Ethics Good Lives and the Virtues is a philosophical study of moral themes in memoirs exploring how memoirists present and defend perspectives on good lives It pays particular attention to the interplay of the virtues including their interplay with additional non moral types of values in good lives More generally it explores the relevance of memoir to moral philosophy and in turn how moral philosophy enters into elucidating and critiquing memoirs Memoirs are understood as non fiction narratives written by oneself and significantly about oneself including full life autobiographies Mike W Martin explores perspectives on good lives as they are expressed in memoirs written by both philosophers and non philosophers Most of the chapters focus on one of the generic aspects of good lives moral goodness authenticity meaningfulness happiness health and self fulfillment The book clarifies how memoirists often employ life based arguments in defending value perspectives and it includes a discussion of whether philosophers memoirs are distinctive compared to memoirs by non philosophers and also compared to other forums for doing philosophy Martin highlights some parallels between features of good lives and features of memoirs for example both can be said to be meaningful authentic and having virtues such as wisdom and courage Demonstrating how memoirs are rich resources in exploring the good lives and exploring ways in which philosophical ethics provide tools for interpreting memoirs Memoir Ethics will be of interest to a broad audience of students scholars and general readers including anyone interested in ethics or the connections between literature and philosophy What a Life Can Be Carolyn Dobbins, 2011-10 A fascinating look into the world of schizoaffective disorder which at times is funny heartbreaking but above all uplifting Dr Carolyn Dobbins describes the onset and progression of this debilitating disease and gives readers hope The book breaks through the stigma as mental illness affects us all Included at the end are facts about serious mental illness the 6 A's of self help and Dr Dobbins message to her counseling colleagues who may be surprised as all readers will be by the ending In an advance review the National Alliance on Mental Illness said this book is told in an unorthodox but very effective manner and that people are more than their illness Dr E Fuller Torrey author of Surviving Schizophrenia said an inspiration for all who have ever experienced psychosis Dr Thomas G Burish a professor of psychology and Provost of Notre Dame University said this book is powerful and revealing and provides a unique insight into chronic mental disease He added that the book is a probing liberating story What a Life! Edward Verrall Lucas, George Morrow, 1975 Cover title What a life The humorous Dadaist classic Life Writing. The Work of Life Writing G. Thomas Couser, 2021-04-13 Life writing in its various forms does work that other forms of expression do not it bears on the world in a way distinct from imaginative genres like fiction drama and poetry it acts in and on history in significant ways Memoirs of illness and disability often seek to depathologize the conditions that they recount Memoirs of parents by their children extend or alter relations forged initially face to face in the home At a time when memoir and other forms of life writing are being produced and consumed in unprecedented numbers this book reminds readers that memoir is not mainly a literary genre or mere entertainment Similarly letters are not merely epiphenomena of our real lives Correspondence does not just serve to communicate it enacts and sustains human relationships Memoir matters and there's life in letters All life writing arises of our daily lives and has distinctive impacts on them and the culture in which we live

Memoirs of the Life and Writings of Benjamin Franklin .. Benjamin Franklin, 1818

A Pedagogist's Memoir Grant Rodwell, 2025-10-07 Opportunities to write our memoirs are many and varied To meet emerging demands the memoir genre continually is evolving and it is possible for the memoirist to shape the memoirs with varying themes time and settings to be brought to bear on school education at a senior level and for a range of teacher development programs Thus the developing importance of an accompanying exegesis For better or for worse childhoods shape adult relationships and attachment styles profoundly shaping who we are as teachers teaching styles and generally the things we consider important and not so important The shape of our childhood and adolescence has a profound impact on how relationships are formed in adulthood It can affect our ability to trust be vulnerable and create productive bonds both at school and college and professionally and also our general levels of motivation Through the aforementioned theme and subthemes my memoirs here reveal how childhood struggle has shaped my approach to teaching and my academic career from an unskilled labourer from the country working class in the timber industry deprived of a high school education and recruited into the workforce at 15 years of age to a senior academic in one of Australia's G8 universities holding five PhDs With strong historical backgrounding a special appeal of this book is its drive to place childhood and adolescent events contained in the memoirs in a wider historical context looking to transnational movements such as discussions on anachronisms and eugenics In so doing the exegesis a fresh and exciting innovation is in harmony with the memoirs The memoir is so refashioned as a pedagogical tool

Memoirs of the Life of the Rev. Charles Simeon, M.A. ... With a Selection from His Writings and Correspondence Charles Simeon, 1848 The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling, 2016-11-24 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story

Memoir of the public and private life of ... Richard Brinsley Sheridan, with a particular account of his family and connexions John Watkins, 1817 Memoirs of My Life and Times John Charles Fremont, 2001-10-16 During his remarkable life John Charles Fr mont served as a senator for the newly formed state of California led Union troops in the Civil War and was governor of the territory of Arizona His race for the presidency in 1856 brought prestige to the fledgling Republican Party yet despite his popularity his uncompromising determination to abolish slavery cost him the election For all of his experiences in politics and the military it was the earlier decades of Fr mont s life that were the most exciting Shortly after graduating from college he joined a mapping expedition and surveyed the hills of South Carolina and Tennessee for the government Eager to continue exploring Fr mont went on five more expeditions to America west of the Appalachians during the years from 1839 to 1846 He traveled up the Missouri river crossed the Rocky Mountains and reached the West Coast on several journeys often with his friend Kit Carson the legendary mountain man In Memoirs of My Life Fr mont recounts those years in the wilderness encountering the fabulous landscapes and native people of America s interior before the westward expansion of the U S His journeys across the unmapped prairies mountains and deserts offer a wonderful glimpse of North America s natural grandeur in its original state Memoirs of the Life and Services of the Rt. Rev. Alonzo Potter

DeWolfe Howe, 2022-12-05 Reprint of the original first published in 1871 Writing the Radical Memoir Paul Williams, Shelley Davidow, 2023-05-18 For those that have mastered the basics of memoir and wish to probe this brand of creative nonfiction further Writing the Radical Memoir uses salient theories about memory and the self to challenge assumptions about how we remember and tell the truth of our lives when we write about it Innovative in approach and making new critical ideas accessible each chapter maps out the key principles of such writers as Barthes Lacan Derrida Lewis Mehl Madrona Philippe Le Jeune and Joseph Campbell invokes literary examples to show how other writers have mastered the idea before reflecting on how you can practically apply the theory to your writing With original exercises and prompts for further reading that bridge the gap between the theoretical and how it might be put into practice the book is attentive to the multiple facets of the genre of nonfiction writing generally covering such topics as The writer reader contract How to embark on a thematic symbolic exploration of themes and incidents in your life How neuro scientific theory can inform our understanding of memory and recall and what happens to our memories when we remember them Character development and the ethics of writing about real people How constructing your identity in memoir offers a chance to push back against traditional structures That memoir might not be preservation of your past but a process of self erasure How J M Coetzee s Autobiography trilogy challenges traditional biography By bringing together lived experience post structuralist and postmodernist theories praxis and artistic vision as a unique approach to writing memoir this book encourages you to think the self how it is portrayed created erased and made strange through the process of writing and remembering
