 collection of essays about Marianne Moore to appear in fifteen years this book brings together the work of well established Moore scholars such as Patricia C Willis Elizabeth Gregory Cristanne Miller Linda Leavell and Robin G Schulze with that of new contributors to the field The essays in this volume written from a variety of international perspectives range across the most pressing concerns of contemporary literary study and reassert Moore s centrality to a critical and poetic field in which she has been surprisingly marginalized This book also includes poems written by contemporary poets many of them significant contributors to scholarship on Moore as a way of acknowledging the importance of Moore s verse to living writers The poems compliment the scholarly essays by demonstrating in verse the important ways in which Moore s artistic achievements have stimulated her successors
