The Box The Temple Of The Blind Series Book 1:

The Box Brian Harmon, 2011-07-01 College student Albert Cross loves puzzles so when a mysterious wooden box appears in the driver's seat of his locked car with cryptic messages carved into it it is no surprise that he quickly becomes obsessed And when his lab partner Brandy unexpectedly turns up in possession of the box's key he finds himself with an opportunity to not only solve an exquisite mystery but to do so with someone he very much wishes to impress But the secret of the box is far greater than either of them suspect Soon they uncover a map that leads them deep underground into the city's vast and complex subterranean system where the miles upon miles of service tunnels and drainage pipes are long rumored to be haunted Here far below the streets Albert and Brandy discover an ancient and very deadly labyrinth hidden for ages deep beneath the earth Together they encounter strange statues populating the darkness shadowy creatures prowling the endless passages and dangerous chambers where their most primal urges are violently turned against them Their clothes lost in a moment of strange lust they find themselves forced to navigate the unearthly stone corridors naked and vulnerable Their only chance for survival lies within the odd assortment of objects found inside the box from which Albert must somehow piece together a map
