

The background of the entire image is a detailed illustration of a Victorian-era street at night. The street is paved with cobblestones and is shrouded in a thick, yellowish fog. Several ornate gas lamps are positioned along the street, casting a warm, golden light. In the distance, several figures are silhouetted against the fog; one figure on the left holds an umbrella, and others are walking further down the street. The buildings lining the street are multi-story and feature many windows, some of which are illuminated from within, adding to the atmospheric lighting.
