Italo Calvino and the Compass of Literature Eugenio Bolongaro, 2003-01-01 Looking at five of Italo Calvino s often neglected early novels The Young People of Po The Cloven Viscount The Baron in the Trees The Non Existent Knight and The Watcher Eugenio Bolongaro argues that these works written between 1948 and 1963 contain a sustained meditation on the role of the intellectual and on the irreducible ethical and political dimension of literature This meditation provides an insight into a crucial moment in Calvino s development as a writer and allows Bolongaro to lay the groundwork for a more political reading of Calvino s later work Italo Calvino and the Compass of Literature firmly situates Calvino within his historical context the cultural revival of post World War II Italy by relating these early novels to Calvino s political and critical writings which played an important role in the cultural debates of the time This approach provides a key to understanding Calvino s work in a new light ably demonstrating that Calvino s full literary significance cannot be understood in isolation from the politics and cultural movements of the period One of the few book length English language works on Calvino s early writings Italo Calvino and the Compass of Literatur will prove to be an indispensable tool to Italianists and literary studies scholars

The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008

Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description The Song of the Earth Jonathan Bate, 2000-09-18 In the first ecological reading of English literature Jonathan Bate traces the distinctions among nature culture and environment and shows how their meanings have changed since their appearance in the literature of the eighteenth century

Transcending Boundaries Sandra L. Beckett, 1999 Transcending Boundaries Writing for a Dual Audience of Children and Adults is a collection of essays on twentieth century authors who cross the borders between adult and children s literature and appeal to both audiences This collection of fourteen essays by scholars from eight countries constitutes the first book devoted to the art of crosswriting the child and adult in twentieth century international literature Sandra Beckett explores the multifaceted nature of crossover literature and the diverse ways in which writers cross the borders to address a dual readership of children and adults It considers classics such as Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Pinocchio with particular emphasis on post World War II literature The essays in Transcending Boundaries clearly suggest that crossover literature is a major widespread trend that appears to be sharply on the rise Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 1997 A hefty one volume reference addressing various facets of the essay Entries are of five types 1 considerations of different types of essay e g moral travel autobiographical 2 discussions of major national traditions 3 biographical profiles of writers who have produced a significant body of work in the genre 4 descriptions of periodicals important for their publication of essays and 5 discussions of some especially significant single essays Each entry includes citations for further reading and cross references Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Books that Devoured my Father Afonso Cruz, 2021-06-01 Vivaldo Bonfim was a bored book keeper whose main escape from the tedium of his work was provided by novels In the office he tended to read rather than work and one day became so immersed in a book that he got lost and disappeared completely That at least is the version given to Vivaldo's son Elias by his grandmother One day Elias sets off like a modern day Telemachus in search of the father he never knew His journey takes him through the plots of many classic novels replete with murders all consuming passions wild beasts and other literary perils The Book that Devoured my Father is at once a celebration of filial love friendship and literature Translated by the UK finest translator of Portuguese Margaret Jull Costa The Tree Climbing Cure Andy Brown, 2022-12-15 Our relationship with trees is a lengthy complex one Since we first walked the earth we have at various times worshiped them felled them and even talked to them For many of us though our first memories of interacting with trees will be of climbing them Exploring how tree climbers have been represented in literature and art in Europe and North America over the ages The Tree Climbing Cure unpacks the curative value of tree climbing examining when and why tree climbers climb and what tree climbing can do for and say about the climber's mental health and wellbeing Bringing together research into poetry novels and paintings with the science of wellbeing and mental health and engaging with myth folklore psychology and storytelling Tree Climber also examines the close relationship between tree climbing and imagination and questions some longstanding problematic gendered injunctions about women climbing trees Discussing among others the literary works of Margaret Atwood Charlotte Bronte Geoffrey Chaucer Angela Carter Kiran Desai and J R R Tolkien as well as work by artists such as Peter Doig Paula Rego and Goya this book stands out as an almost encyclopedic examination of cultural representations of this quirky and ultimately restorative pastime Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature Utopias and the Environment Geoffrey Berry, 2017-10-02 Utopias and the Environment explores the way in which the kind of dreaming or re visioning known as the utopian imaginary takes environmental concerns into account This kind of creative intervention is increasingly important in an era of ecological crisis as we witness the failure of governments worldwide to significantly change industrial civilization from a path of business as usual In this context it is up to the artists in this case authors to imagine new ways of being that respond to this imperative and immediate global issue Concurrently it is also up to critics readers and thinkers everywhere to appraise these narratives of possibility for their complexities and internal conflicts as well as for their promise as we enter this new era of rapid change and adaptation Because creative and critical thinkers must work together towards this goal the idea of the critical utopia coined by Tom Moylan in response to the fiction of the 1970s is now ingrained in the common argot and is one of the key ideas discussed in this book This development in the genre which combines self reflexivity and multiple perspectives within its dreaming represents the postmodern spirit in its most regenerative aspect This book is testament to such hopes and potential realities This book was originally published as a special issue of Green Letters

National Identity and Cultural Representation in the Novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai Sonali Das, 2018-04-18 This book is the first of its kind to examine the theories of nation and national identity in both the West according to the theories of Benedict Anderson and Salman Rushdie and in the East in the light of the works of Jawaharlal Nehru as they apply to the novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai The second part of the twentieth century witnessed a new interface between fiction and history called New History It brought into its purview the hitherto marginalized sections of society like slaves peasants workers women and children Whereas the subalterns in The Inheritance of Loss are disempowered by the brunt of globalisation and neo colonialism the subalterns in The God of Small Things face the ire of the deep seated divisions based on caste and gender bias in a postcolonial society In addition this book also deals with contemporary social issues like individual identity in a multicultural world where cultures and nature converge into myriad ways of living It will be of immense benefit to MA and MPhil students all over India as well as to PhD scholars and teachers of English literature both in India and abroad

The Trees of Great Britain and Ireland Henry John Elwes, Augustine Henry, 2014-01-23 This well illustrated seven volume work 1906 13 covers the varieties distribution history and cultivation of tree species in the British Isles
