Doyle D. Calhoun

The Belly Of The Atlantic:

The Belly of the Atlantic Fatou Diome, 2006 A powerful debut novel from a talented young Senegalese author The Suicide Archive Doyle D. Calhoun, 2024-09-13 Throughout the French empire from the Atlantic and the Caribbean to West and North Africa men women and children responded to enslavement colonization and oppression through acts of suicide In The Suicide Archive Doyle D Calhoun charts a long history of suicidal resistance to French colonialism and neocolonialism from the time of slavery to the Algerian War for Independence to the Arab Spring Noting that suicide was either obscured in or occluded from French colonial archives Calhoun turns to literature and film to show how aesthetic forms and narrative accounts can keep alive the silenced histories of suicide as a political language Drawing on scientific texts police files and legal proceedings alongside contemporary African and Afro Caribbean novels film and Senegalese oral history Calhoun outlines how such aesthetic works rewrite histories of resistance and loss Consequently Calhoun offers a new way of writing about suicide slavery and coloniality in relation to literary history Black French Women and the Struggle for Equality, 1848-2016 Félix Germain, Silyane Larcher, 2018-10 Black French Women and the Struggle for Equality 1848 2016 explores how black women in France itself the French Caribbean Gor e Dakar Rufisque and Saint Louis experienced and reacted to French colonialism and how gendered readings of colonization decolonization and social movements cast new light on the history of French colonization and of black France In addition to delineating the powerful contributions of black French women in the struggle for equality contributors also look at the experiences of African American women in Paris and in so doing integrate into colonial and postcolonial conversations the strategies black women have engaged in negotiating gender and race relations la fran aise Drawing on research by scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds and countries this collection offers a fresh multidimensional perspective on race class and gender relations in France and its former colonies exploring how black women have negotiated the boundaries of patriarchy and racism from their emancipation from slavery to the second decade of the twenty first century Conscripts of Migration Christopher Ian Foster, 2019-08-23 In Conscripts of Migration Neoliberal Globalization Nationalism and the Literature of New African Diasporas author Christopher Ian Foster analyzes increasingly urgent questions regarding crises of global immigration by redefining migration in terms of conscription and by studying contemporary literature Reporting on immigration whether liberal or conservative popular or scholarly leaves out the history in which the Global North helped create outward migration in the Global South From histories of racial capitalism the trans Atlantic slave trade and imperialism to contemporary neoliberal globalization and the resurgence of xenophobic nationalism countries in the Global North continue to devastate and destabilize the Global South Britain France Italy and the United States in different ways police the effects of their own global policies at their borders Foster provides a substantial study of a new body of contemporary African diasporic literature called migritude literature Migritude indicates the work and ideas of a disparate yet distinct group of younger African authors born after independence in the 1960s Most often migratory authors have lived both in and outside Africa and narrate the experiences of migration under the pressures of globalization They also emphasize that immigration itself and stereotypes of the immigrant are entangled with the history of colonialism Authors like Fatou Diome Shailja Patel Abdourahman Waberi Cristina Ali Farah and others confront critical issues of migrancy diaspora departure return racism identity gender sexuality and postcoloniality

Elliot,Ute Fendler,Margret Frenz,Michael Mann,Ineke Phaf-Rheinberger,Sebastian R. Prange,Ana Sobral,Frank Schulze-Engler,2014-04-23 The title of Beyond the Line refers to the imaginary Line drawn between North and South a division established by the Peace Treaty of Cateau Cambr sis in 1559 This is an early modern time and Eurocentric construction according to which the southern oceanic world has long been taken as symbol of expansionist philosophies and practices An obvious motivation for changing this Line division is the growing influence of the Global South in the contemporary economic and political setting However another motivation for changing opinions in regard to the Line is equally important We observe an emergent consciousness of the pivotal role of the oceanic world for human life This requires the reformulation of former views and raises numerous questions A diversity of connections comes to the mind which demands the composition of a catalogue of case studies with an oceanic horizon Through this operation different problems are being linked together Which problems encounter historians with their research on fishes in the archives How to trace records about pirates of non European descent in the Indian Ocean Which role play the Oceans as mediators for labor migrations not only of the Black Atlantic but also of people moving from Asia to Africa and vice versa What do we know about workers on the oceans and their routes When considering oceans as contact zones with which criteria can their influence in different literary texts be analyzed Is it possible to study nationalisms taking into account these transoceanic relationships And how do artists address these questions in their use of the media Against the background of this catalogue of oceanic questions old stories are told anew Sometimes their cultural stereotypes are recycled to criticize political and social situations Or in other cases they are adopted for elaborating alternative options In this sense the contributions concentrate on countries like India Kenya Angola or Brazil and cover different academic fields A variety of objects and situations are explored which have been and still are determinant for the construction of cultural narratives in view of the modified relationship with the geographically southern oceanic regions Narrating the Slave Trade, Theorizing Community Raphaël Lambert,2018-12-24 In Narrating the Slave Trade Theorizing Community Rapha l Lambert explores the notion of community in conjunction with literary works concerned with the transatlantic slave trade The recent surge of interest in both slave trade and community studies concurs with the return of free market ideology which once justified and facilitated the exponential growth of the slave trade The motif of unbridled capitalism recurs in all the works discussed herein however community whether racial political utopian or conceptual emerges as a fitting frame of reference to reveal unsuspected facets of the relationships between all involved parties and expose the ramifications of the trade across time and space Ultimately this book calls for a complete reevaluation of what it means to live together Senegal Sean Connolly,2019-02-01 This new thoroughly updated edition of Bradt s Senegal continues to offer far and away the greatest depth of coverage for this increasingly popular part of West Africa With over 350 pages of detailed description and 40 maps this remains the definitive source of information to a country that is often described as the whole of West Africa in microcosm This new edition includes details of the rapidly changing transport situation notably the opening of the new international airport and the first bridge to span the Gambia River All regions of the country are covered including detailed information on access to Senegal's national parks with detailed maps itineraries and practical information on transport accommodation and eating for each region Senegal boasts a variety of landscapes and cultures that belie its compact size Northern desert wilds give way to the rain soaked Casamance fringed by hundreds of kilometres of pristine beaches and the fantastically frenetic capital city Dakar surrounded by ocean and proudly perched at the westernmost point on the African continent This smorgasbord of landscapes is all accessible within a day's travel making Senegal the perfect choice for anyone looking to sink their teeth into West Africa for the first time or the hundredth Natural assets aside Senegal is home to a world of man made delectations Dakar's nightclubs throb well into the morning hours and offer a rare chance to dance yourself silly with superstar musicians on their home turf With one of Africa's most prolific arts scenes Senegal attracts numerous visitors for its cultural attractions and this book provides a thorough and accessible introduction to the music art film and literature of this most creative of countries Beyond the capital Saint Louis charm is an enchanting throwback to the colonial glamour of the 19th century and sleepy le de Goré is a haunting testament to colonial horror as visitors peer through the door of no return where thousands destined for the Americas glimpsed their homes for the final time With all new first hand research Bradt's Senegal is the only guide ready to take you to all corners of this enchanting land The Beautiful Skin Vlad Dima, 2020-09-01 In this original and provocative study of contemporary African film and literature Vlad Dima investigates the way that football and cinema express individual and collective fantasies and highlights where football and cinema converge and diverge with regard to neocolonial fantasies Shedding new light on both well known and less familiar films by Mahamat Saleh Haroun Abderrahmane Sissako Jean Pierre Bekolo Moussa Tour Safi Faye Cheick Doukour and Joseph Ga Ramaka among others the study asks just whose fantasy is articulated in football and African cinema Answering this question requires the exploration of body and identity issues here through the metaphor of skin fantasy as a skin the football jersey as a skin and ultimately film itself as a skin that has visual aural and haptic qualities The neocolonial body is often depicted as suffering and in the process of being flattened or emptied So frequently do African cinema and literature replicate this hollowed body all skin as it were that it becomes the very type of body that defines neocolonialism Could the body of film the depth of both characters and story within the cinematic skin hold the key to moving into a post neocolonial era an era defined by full bodies and personal affirmation This is the question Dima seeks to answer Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Transnational Narratives from the Caribbean Elvira Pulitano, 2016-03-10 This book offers a timely intervention in current debates on diaspora and diasporic identity by affirming the importance of narrative as a discursive mode to understand the human face of contemporary migrations and dislocations Focusing on the Caribbean double diaspora Pulitano offers a close reading of a range of popular works by four well known writers currently living in the United States Jamaica Kincaid Michelle Cliff Edwidge Danticat and Caryl Phillips Navigating the map of fictional characters testimonial accounts and autobiographical experiences Pulitano draws attention to the lived experience of contemporary diasporic formations The book offers a provocative re thinking of socio scientific analyses of diaspora by discussing the embodied experience of contemporary diasporic communities drawing on disciplines such as Caribbean Postcolonial Diaspora and Indigenous Studies along with theories on border thinking and coloniality modernity Contesting restrictive national and linguistic boundaries when discussing literature originating from the Caribbean Pulitano situates the transnational location of Caribbean born writers within current debates of Transnational American Studies and investigates the role of immigrant writers in discourses of race ethnicity citizenship and belonging Exploring the multifarious intersections between home exile migration and displacement the book makes a significant contribution to memory and trauma studies human rights debates and international law aiming at a wide range of scholars and specialized agents beyond the strictly literary circle This volume affirms the humanity of personal stories and experiences against the invisibility of immigrant subjects in most theoretical accounts of diaspora and migration

Francophone Afropean Literatures Nicki Hitchcott, Dominic Richard David Thomas, 2014 This volume explores the concept and possibility of a black European community by analysing the ways in which contemporary Francophone African writers articulate and interrogate their complex relationships with European society culture and history

Girls in French and Francophone Literature and Film Daniela Di Cecco, 2015-06-24 Girls in French and Francophone Literature and Film is a collection of essays focusing on constructions of girlhood in French and Francophone Literature and Film from the late Nineteenth to the early Twenty First centuries The volume is firmly anchored at the intersection of French and Francophone studies and the burgeoning field of girls studies Collectively the articles demonstrate that girls experience historically viewed as a mere deviation from the normative male model is a product of diverse ideological cultural and economic factors and is deserving of its own field of inquiry Sub-Saharan African Immigrants' Stories of Resilience and Courage Mariam Konate,Fredah Mainah,2022-12-06 The purpose of this book is to give a voice to nameless and countless stories that represent the personal lived experiences of sub Saharan African immigrants in the United States The authors believe that telling our own stories from our own perspectives is important and empowering because when others tell our stories there are omissions and misrepresentations and a lot of stereotyping The authors hope that the insights gained from the research in this book will be used by immigrant communities academic institutions and governmental agencies in advocating for immigration policies that positively impact the lived experiences of sub Saharan African immigrants and in planning support interventions Gold Coast Diasporas Walter C. Rucker,2015-09-28 Provocative and well written a must read for any scholar interested in African identity the transatlantic slave trade and resistance American Historical Review Although they came from distinct polities and peoples who spoke different languages slaves from the African Gold Coast were collectively identified by Europeans as Coromantee or Mina Why these ethnic labels were embraced and how they were utilized by enslaved Africans to develop new group identities is the subject of Walter C Rucker s absorbing study Rucker examines the social and political factors that contributed to the creation of New World ethnic identities and assesses the ways displaced Gold Coast Africans used familiar ideas about power as a means of understanding defining and resisting oppression He explains how performing Coromantee and Mina identity involved a common set of concerns and the creation of the ideological weapons necessary to resist the slavocracy These weapons included obeah powders charms and potions the evolution of peasant consciousness and the ennoblement of common people increasingly aggressive displays of masculinity and the empowerment of women as leaders spiritualists and warriors all of which marked sharp breaks or reformulations of patterns in their Gold Coast past One of the book s greatest strengths is the ways in which Rucker painstakingly traces how ethnic labels were appropriated recast and ultimately employed as a means to establish community bonds and resist oppression Chapters that focus on the creation of the Gold Coast diaspora religion and women make for a captivating text that will be of interest to graduate students and specialist readers Recommended Choice Encyclopedia of Ocean Sciences ,2019-04-12 The oceans cover 70% of the Earth s surface and are critical components of Earth s climate system This new edition of Encyclopedia of Ocean Sciences Six Volume Set summarizes the breadth of knowledge about them providing revised up to date entries as well coverage of new topics in the field New and expanded sections include microbial ecology high latitude systems and the cryosphere climate and climate change hydrothermal and cold seep systems The structure of the work provides a modern presentation of the
