about these particular places but more importantly about the world of Black higher education in the decades before the civil rights movement Paul Harvey Distinguished Professor of History University of Colorado Colorado Springs In Contentious Unions Black Baptist Schools and White Baptist Money in the Jim Crow South Mary Beth Swetnam Mathews interweaves the stories of the founding and development of Richmond Theological Seminary Virginia Central City College Macon Georgia and American Baptist Theological Seminary Nashville Tennessee colleges that saw challenges complexities and hard won accomplishments in the Post Reconstruction era Her study begins just after the Civil War when one of these institutions provided educational opportunities for newly freed slaves and follows the fortunes of the schools through the 1960s Mathews reveals the financial curricular and identity struggles of schools that came into being and survived under difficult circumstances The institutions relied on funding from White Baptists but also had to fight against control and exploitation from those who helped them financially Though each school evolved with a different identity and educational mission Mathews concludes that they could be simultaneously symbols of racial independence as well as victims of white supremacy As oppositional spaces these schools gave their communities access to the ground floor of the civil rights movement and the author highlights their connections to some of the more famous activists such as John R Lewis Jo Ann Gibson Robinson and Gordon P Hancock Ultimately Mathews s book is a fascinating and complex account that uses the history of these three institutions to illuminate the origins of the long struggle for civil rights

Jonathan Daly,2019-10-03 One thousand years ago a traveler to Baghdad or the Chinese capital Kaifeng would have discovered a vast and flourishing city of broad streets spacious gardens and sophisticated urban amenities meanwhile Paris Rome and London were cramped and unhygienic collections of villages and Europe was a backwater How then did it rise to world preeminence over the next several centuries This is the central historical conundrum of modern times How Europe Made the Modern World draws upon the latest scholarship dealing with the various aspects of the West s divergence including geography demography technology culture institutions science and economics It avoids the twin dangers of Eurocentrism and anti Westernism strongly emphasizing the contributions of other cultures of the world to the West s rise while rejecting the claim that there was nothing distinctive about Europe in the premodern period Daly provides a concise summary of the debate from both sides whilst also presenting his own provocative arguments Drawing on a wide range of primary and secondary sources and including maps and images to illuminate key evidence this book will inspire students to think critically and engage in debates rather than accepting a single narrative of the rise of the West It is an ideal primer for students studying Western Civilization and World History courses

Complexion Based Discriminations Dr. Deen

Dayal,2018-06-15 Complexion based discrimination is a harsh prejudice against dark skinned people by fair skinned people that has been prevalent in all countries and continents of the world This book states the unbearable traumas faced by dark skinned people such as Nelson Mandela Martin Luther Jimmy Carter Barack Obama Mahatma Gandhi Bhimrao Ambedkar and the Dalai Lama The book is a harsh whip against the orthodox dogmas that make the lives of dark or black skinned people hell and is a healing balm to restore their stamina in the fight against people who deprive them of their rights It is an effort to strike at the root of superstitions and prejudice Worth is to be based on one s quality talent and hard work not on skin colour

The Fortney Encyclical Black History Albert Fortney Jr.,2016-01-15 The Encyclical Black History has been created for the critical and lack of vital Afro Centric Multi Curriculum text in urban school systems and is a necessity for African Americans This book was created with careful and serious attention to biographical names that identifies history culture as well as biblical characters The reason why of this encyclical history can be explained with the facts and proof evidence of the following The point that has socio psychological implications at the unconscious as well as the conscious level is the great little white racist lie seen long enough becomes the truth like portraying a white Jesus Christ who was a black man Dr Alvin Poussaint a Black psychiatrist associated with Harvard University and others have observed and explained the most tragic part of all of this is that the African American has come to form his self image and self concept on the basis of what white racists have laid down as a guide or prescribed Therefore black men and women learn quickly to hate themselves and each other more than their white oppressor There is almost infinite evidence that racism has left almost irreparable scars on the psyche of Afro Americans that burden with an unrelenting painful anxiety that drives the psyche to reach out for a sense of identity and self esteem Poussaint and others say that black children especially learn to hate themselves at very early ages Studies reveal their preference for white dolls over black ones One study reported that black children in their drawings tend to show blacks as small incomplete people and whites as strong and powerful To conclude in western color symbolism white is positive and black negative Many people might ask why the contributions of Africa should be included in American curriculum Is because they bleach and still rob black history and culture with black pictured as white that lie leaves us mentally dead angry and without purpose of where we are going Human culture is the product of all humanity not the possession of a single racial or ethnic group Afro centric Multicultural educations major aim is to close the gap between Western ideals of equality justice and practices that contradict these ideas Stereotype people of color and people who are poor have just about no opportunities to become free of perspectives that are monoculture that devalue African culture victimize them mostly having an inability to fully function effectively in society Many of these problems could be miraculously remedied with astonishing results if explained of black scientific achievements which occurred in black Africa There are also white African Americans living in the U S A besides black African Americans should make the distinction Carl Sandburg 1979 related a dialogue between a white American and an American Indian which illustrates the need for multicultural education. The white man drew a small circle in the sand and told the red man, "This is what the Indian knows," and drawing a big circle around the small one, "this is what the white man knows." The Indian then took the stick and swept an immensely big ring around both circles and said, "this is where the white man and the red man know nothing." The Modern Superhero in Film and Television Jeffrey A. Brown, 2016-11-10. Hollywood's live action superhero films currently dominate the worldwide box office with the characters enjoying more notoriety through their feature film and television depictions than they have ever before. This book argues that this immense popularity reveals deep cultural concerns about politics, gender, ethnicity, patriotism, and consumerism after the events of 9/11. Superheroes have long been agents of hegemony, fighting for abstract ideals of justice while overall perpetuating the American status quo. Yet at the same time, the book explores how the genre has also been utilized to question and critique these dominant cultural assumptions. Railroad Telegrapher, 1899
