In this contribution I distinguish three complementary approaches In the first part I discuss those that focus on the film as text the representation of religion in film and how theology happens in film The next section will broaden this perspective by taking into consideration how films affect audiences and how the relationship between film and audience might have religious dimensions or serve religious functions In the third part attention to the text and the audience are combined with the consideration of both film and religion as agents in cultural processes in order to think about how film and religion are shaped by and shape value systems and ideologies In the last section I will begin to tackle the difficult question of theory and method I consciously postpone this part until the end because in many cases methodologies and theoretical frameworks are implied in and emerge from concrete case studies rather than being consciously reflected upon This final section has two goals it will make explicit some of these underlying assumptions to serve as a starting point for a more sustained reflection on the theories and methodologies of the field and it will highlight some of the pitfalls we encounter if we are not methodologically and theoretically precise in our work

Salvation from Cinema Crystal Downing, 2015-10-23 Salvation from Cinema offers something new to the burgeoning field of religion and film the religious significance of film technique Discussing the history of both cinematic devices and film theory Crystal Downing argues that attention to the material medium echoes Christian doctrine about the materiality of Christ's body as the medium of salvation Downing cites Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Hindu perspectives on film in order to compare and clarify the significance of medium within the frameworks of multiple traditions This book will be useful to professors and students interested in the relationship between religion and film

Film and the Afterlife David Rankin, 2019-07-15 This book explores how post death existence is represented in popular film looking at issues such as continuity personal identity and the nature of existence beyond the grave Film often returns to the theme of dying death and the afterlife both directly and indirectly because there are very few subjects as compelling and universal The book compares the representation of death dying and the afterlife in films to scholarly surveys of attitudes towards life after death through the analysis of twenty films made between the end of World War II and now It looks at the portrayals of stages between death and a final destination spatio temporal and personal continuity the nature of afterlife existence in terms of embodiment or not and the contact between the worlds of the living and the dead This book offers a wide ranging view on a compelling subject in film As such it will be of great interest to scholars of Religion and Film Religion and Media the Philosophy of Religion and the Sociology of Religion as well as Religion Media and Film Studies more generally Requiem for a nation Roberto

This collection of essays explores the impact of Jesus within and beyond Christianity, including his many afterlives in literature and the arts, social, just, and world religions during the past two thousand years and especially in the present global context. This third volume focuses on the diverse afterlives of Jesus within contemporary culture and the arts. Moving beyond the explicitly religious afterlives traced in the first two volumes, this set of essays traces selected afterlives of Jesus within Indigenous cultures around the Pacific as well as in the arts and in the contested fields of gender and sexuality. The contributors include religion scholars from diverse cultural contexts as well as faith practitioners reflecting on Jesus within their own particular context. While the essays are all grounded in critical scholarship, reflective practice, or both, they are expressed in nontechnical language that is accessible to interested nonspecialists.

Film, Philosophy and Religion William H. U. Anderson, 2022-01-04. Hollywood is a 40 billion annual business, one that is highly influential in culture. If we want to know who we are as individuals and a society, what we believe and what we value, we need to know and understand Hollywood and film. Make no mistake: Hollywood is neither philosophically, politically, nor morally neutral. Many studies demonstrate how movies affect us long before we have thought it through. In other words, Hollywood smuggles all kinds of ideas into our minds and hearts without us even knowing it. While Hollywood may be the biggest and most influential in the world, this book will demonstrate the growing international influence of film from India (Bollywood), Nigeria (Nollywood), Zimbabwe (Zollywood), and Yesilam, Turkey. Film, Philosophy and Religion explicitly and implicitly takes a philosophical approach to analyzing film theoretically and methodologically. There are topic- and film-specific chapters that take a theological approach, and others that explore ideas like Affect, Axiology, Art, Reflecting the Artist, and Transcendence. Spirituality of Film Hermeneutics also have a central role in the book, including films based on biblical texts that act as interpretations of these texts and fill in the blanks, albeit speculatively, by way of script and directors. Chapters also explore the philosophy of aesthetics and film realism, which end with theology while other chapters explore the incompatibility of science with religion as well as a chapter on the timely topic of rape in Turkish film The book's scope goes from the Horror of Evil in Ridley Scott's Alien Universe to Love Can Thaw a Frozen Heart The Philosophy of Love in the Frozen Films Disney Princess Narratives This book represents international films and scholars The diverse perspectives from theist to atheist and everything in between are sure to spark thinking and generate talking points that provide something for everyone in an accessible format It will be of great interest to university students and professors scholars seminars and the general public Visions of the End Times Laura

Duhan-Kaplan, Anne-Marie Ellithorpe, Harry O. Maier, 2022-11-11 Global challenges fill the news today It's not always easy to balance fear with hope That's why this book points to resources for optimism and action A diverse group of scholars draw on Jewish Christian Islamic and Mori traditions to describe challenges and hopes They recognize the ruptures of militarism trauma colonialism religious nationalism climate change and more But they also describe the healing power of communal action spiritual practices biblical literature and the arts Dreams, Doubt, and Dread Zachary Thomas Settle, Taylor

Worley, 2016-08-24 Films are modern spiritual phenomena They function as such in at least three profound ways world projection thought experiments and catharsis i.e. as dreams doubt and dread Understanding film in this way allows for a theological account of the experience that speaks to the religious possibilities of film that far extend the portrayal of religious themes or content Dreams Doubt and Dread The Spiritual in Film aims to address films as spiritual experiences This collection of short essays and dialogues examines films phenomenologically through the experience of the viewer as an agent having been acted upon in the functioning of the film itself Authors were invited to take one of the main themes and creatively consider how film in their experiences has provided opportunities for new modes of thinking Contributors will then engaged one another in a dialogue about the similarities and differences in their descriptions of film as spiritual phenomena The intended aim of this text is to shift contemporary theological film engagement away from a simple mode of analysis in which theological concepts are simply read into the film itself and begin to let films speak for themselves as profoundly spiritual experiences The Dardenne Brothers' Cinematic Parables Joel Mayward, 2022-09-30 The Dardenne Brothers

Cinematic Parables examines the work of Belgian filmmakers Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne who have been celebrated for their powerfully affecting social realist films Though the Dardenne brothers films rarely mention religion or God they have received wide recognition for their moral complexity and spiritual resonance This book brings the Dardennes filmography into consideration with theological aesthetics Christian ethics phenomenological film theory and continental philosophy The author explores the brothers nine major films beginning with The Promise 1996 and culminating in Young Ahmed 2019 through the hermeneutics of philosopher Paul Ricoeur By using Ricoeur's description of parable as a narrative metaphor which generates an existential limit experience Joel Mayward crafts an innovative Ricoeurian hermeneutic for making theological interpretations of cinema Drawing upon resources from three disciplinary spheres theology philosophy and film studies in a dynamic interweaving approach Mayward proposes that the Dardennes create postsecular cinematic parables which evoke theological and ethical responses in audiences imaginations through the brothers distinctive filmmaking style what is termed transcendent realism The book ultimately demonstrates how the Dardenne brothers are truly doing not merely depicting theology and ethics through the cinematic form it presents film as theology what Mayward refers to as theocinematics This is valuable reading for scholars of theology philosophy and film studies as well as film critics and cinephiles interested in the cinema of the Dardenne brothers

Contemporary Spiritualities Stefania Palmisano, Nicola Pannofino, 2020-11-01 Contemporary alternative spirituality as studied by sociologists is usually seen as a recent phenomenon dating from the 1960s and 1970s However when viewed from a longer term perspective this form of religious expression is actually seen to reintroduce concepts that recur throughout Western cultural history This book argues therefore that spirituality in the 21st Century actually shares many of the same characteristics as Classical Mediaeval Renaissance and Modern spiritualities It is neither entirely new nor is it clearly alternative to more established religions The book is divided into two parts The first sets out the context in which contemporary alternative spirituality has formed charting its development as an academic term and a social phenomenon The second part looks at how these two elements have developed in countries that are historically Catholic focussing on specific examples in contemporary Italy spiritualities based on the sacralisation of nature those concerned with health and wellbeing and those which are fascinated by mystery Catholic majority countries are particularly interesting in this instance as the Catholic Church has a unique cultural hegemony with which to compare alternative spiritual practices It concludes that spirituality if framed in a longer historical perspective is a way of acting and seeing the world which was built and continues to be built upon complex relations with various contradictory sources of authority such as religion magic thinking secularism rationalism various spheres of lay culture This is a bold take on the spirituality milieu and as such will be of great interest to scholars of Religious Studies working on the sociology of religion contemporary spirituality and the rise of the spiritual but not religious
